WANTED – Artists & Artwork

- America250 – Detroit Lakes Community Art Showcase
The VFW Post 1676 and Project 412 are inviting artists of all ages and experience levels to participate in a community exhibition celebrating the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The showcase provides an opportunity for artists to express what America means to them and reflect on America's past, present and future through their original artwork. Four prizes will be awarded. Deadline to submit an application is July 12. Selected artwork will be exhibited during Art in the Park on July 26, 9am-3pm, in the DL City Park. Application and submission guidelines can be found at <https://project412mn.org/call-for-art/>
- Celebrating the work of Linda Doebbert
Do you have a piece of Linda Doebbert's beautiful art in your home or collection? The Becker County Museum would like to borrow artwork for an upcoming retrospective celebrating her artistic legacy. To make this retrospective as rich and representative as possible, we are requesting that those who own work by Doebbert consider lending your piece for inclusion in this exhibition. Contact Project 412 at 218-844-4221, x122.

Kent Estey Exhibits open through Labor Day weekend . . . Estey is an Anishinaabe artist, author and speaker from the White Earth Nation of Ojibwe. His vibrant and expressive work captures the colors, emotions and beauty of the land and sky in our region. Exhibits are free.

- Becker County Museum – original & prints of acrylic, oil and ink paintings
- Ortenstone Gardens & Sculpture Park – large scale print reproductions along the Aspen Overlook Trail
- Washington Square Mall – large scale print reproductions
