In life and in death we belong to God.

Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,

the love of God,

and the communion of the Holy Spirit,

we trust in one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. ### Autumn Leaves for Your Gifts of 100

Back in January and February, the Centennial Commission presented the idea of how you can commemorate our 100th anniversary in a personal way – by committing to a gift of 100. You were asked to hang a green leaf with your promise on our Giving Tree in the narthex.

Now that our anniversary is fast approaching, it's time for you to acknowledge your completed promise by writing your completed gift on a yellow or orange leaf. For example, if your commitment was to pray 10 extra minutes each month, you will write on your autumn leaf: "I prayed 10 extra minutes each month." If your pledge was to call 10 people each month, you will write on your autumn leaf: "I called 10 people each month."

The leaves and some pens are in a basket near the tree. Each Sunday, a member of the commission will be in the narthex to help you with any questions or to hang your leaf on the tree.

Think how pretty our tree will look when you've added your yellow and orange leaves to the green leaves already there.

(Please remember to leave your name off as these gifts are anonymous.)

Submitted by Gloria Underwood, Chair of Centennial Commission
