Trailblazing Indiana Women

June 6, 2019 12:00 - 12:30 pm
with q-and-a to follow

Elizabeth Mitchell Historian

Everyone is welcome to bring a brown-bag lunch and join us for snacks and beverages Thursday, June 6, from 11:30 am to 12:00 pm.

Elizabeth Mitchell, historian, will speak about trailblazing women - mainly from Indiana - who are unknown or little known to most of us.

For over four decades, Ms. Mitchell has been passionate about researching and sharing local African-American history. A recent project has involved fundraising to restore the First Baptist Church (Colored) in West Baden, Indiana.

Ms. Mitchell is a 2018 recipient of the Indiana Historical Society's Hubert Hawking Local History Award. This award is made annually to a local historian for distinguished service or career in local history.

As one of Resilience Productions co-founders (Dr. Gladys DeVane, Danielle Bruce and Ms. Mitchell), she has researched, co-written, and acted in plays and performances, including "Resilience: Indiana's Untold Story" and "She Changed the Course of History: The Rosa Parks Story."

Please join us! You're welcome to stay for the business meeting from 12:45 pm to 1:00 pm.
