

The City of Bloomington presents

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

*The Truth Hurts:
Black History and Healing the Racial Divide*

January 18th, 2021 | 7:00 P.M. via Zoom

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Khalid el-Hakim

Educator, activist, and founder of the
Black History 101 Mobile Museum

Featuring the Indiana University African American Choir Ensemble
Directed by Dr. Raymond Wise

Indiana University Jacobs School of Music, Ballet Department

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Legacy Award Presentation

Recognition of A DAY ON! NOT DAY OFF! Volunteers

RSVP NOW:

<https://tinyurl.com/MLKCelebration2021RSVP>

MAJOR UNDERWRITERS ($1,000 or more):

City of Bloomington Community and Family Resources Department |
Indiana University, Office of the Vice President for Diversity, Equity, and Multicultural Affairs | Cook Inc.

EVENT SPONSORS ($500-$999):

Ivy Tech Community College | Old National Bank | Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of
Bloomington | Lola B. Debro and Family

EVENT CONTRIBUTORS ($250-$499):

United Way | Day & Deremiah-Frye Funeral Home | Bloomington Human Rights Commission

MEDIA SPONSORS:

WFIU and WFHB

COOK®

CITY OF BLOOMINGTON
Community and Family
Resources