

At-Large Board Member Julia Karin Lawson

Julia Karin Lawson has been a member of UUCB since August 2005. She and her late husband John moved back to Bloomington after 18 years in northern Virginia. Julie received her MA and PhD in German Literature from IU back in the day, and is very proud of a long and varied career in teaching. She is a joyfully grateful member of the UUCB church choir and the Heartland String Band, and has served as chair of the Holiday Art Fair and Bazaar, co-chair of the Grounds Committee, and as mentor for the Coming of Age program.
