Dear Hope for Prisoners Taskforce, 10/21/21

Random acts of kindness & generosity are oh so rare in a place like this. Today, because of you, I am the beneficiary of just that. Thank you for gifting me with $125.00. The first thing that I purchased was $25.00 worth of phone time. I then placed a call to my mom & told her the good news! She sends her appreciation as well :) I purchased a 30 day news feed subscription on my prison issued tablet for $10.00, & a 30 day Podcast subscription for another $10.00. I feel more connected to the outside world now that I have 24 hour access to ESPN, CNN, Fox (Uhgh) NPR & host of other programs. Now, I can put my earbuds in, block out the noise around here, & educate myself in the process. After this lockdown is over, I'm going to treat a couple of indigent prisoners to some 'Fresh Favorites'. That is the name of the hot meals we are allowed to order from the outside. Some of the menu items include: Angus Double Cheese Burgers, Tater Tots, Hot Dogs, & Chocolate Chip Cookies. I Love the chicken sandwiches with sliced pickles & mayo... Random acts of kindness & generosity are oh so rare in a place like this. Today, because of you, I get to pay it foward.

Peace & Love,

Phillip
