

Gathering for Thanksgiving 2020

Thanksgiving is more complicated than usual this year, but we can still find ways to celebrate together. As you plan ahead, please know that all members of the UU church community are invited to join in any or all of the following Thanksgiving Day 2020 events. Join on your own, with your family, or however you can! (Please note that the previously announced outdoor walk together will not take place after all, for safety reasons.)

Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 26, 2020

- 7:30 a.m., in your neighborhood or on a trail - mindful walk - think of all of us as you walk - maybe ask a friend or two to join you - pick up a leaf or stone, take a picture on your phone, write a poem or a letter in your head - walk in gratitude
- 8:30 to 9 a.m., brief Zoom connection to share what we saw, felt, found, thought on our walks
- 3 to 5 p.m. on Zoom: come cook, eat, and share Thanksgiving dishes together! You can cook and then eat while you talk to us, or eat something you've bought or made ahead of time, or just hang out while we eat and talk. Make one dish that's your favorite Thanksgiving dish ever; make a whole Thanksgiving feast; or order a dish or a whole meal from your favorite restaurant or grocery store and eat it with us. You are also invited to bring a thought, a poem, or a prayer about gratitude that you might share with the group. (This is a relaxed and informal way to spend time together over Zoom; we may be in each other's messy kitchens, we may be bustling around as we chat; we come together without judgment!)
- 7 to 8:30 p.m. on Zoom: virtual game night for Thanksgiving fun!

Please RSVP at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0445adaa2da4fd0-uuthanksgiving> by Monday, November 23rd. You will then be sent a Zoom link closer to the day.
