March 16, 2020

Dear Members and Friends of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Bloomington:

In order to protect all those who use our building from the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19), we have decided to cancel all upcoming in-person meetings and events at the church for the next two weeks. The Board will update this status at the end of two weeks. We will be glad to assist those who wish to have a meeting to use our Zoom account. Please be aware that only one Zoom meeting can be held at any given time. To reserve a Zoom meeting time-slot for your meeting please contact Ann LeDuc at connect@uubloomington.org.

The important work of our beloved church continues. However, during this time of increased safety, we also have asked our staff and all hourly employees to work at home for their health and the health of others. Our ministers, staff and members continue to keep in touch with anyone who has special needs or pastoral care. If you have questions, please see the contact information listed below.

Next Sunday, March 22, 2020, please join us as we live stream our worship service at 10:15 a.m. You may connect with our worship service on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/uubloomington/> or at <http://www.uubloomington.org/>. If you are new to our church or a long-time member simply looking for a truly uplifting experience during a time when our community, our country and the world are so unsettled, I highly recommend viewing some of our archived worship services. <http://www.uubloomington.org/worship-services/selected-sermons/>. These services vividly represent the joy, passion and love that embodies this community.

To continue the important work of our church during these unsettled times, we need your continued support. In addition to continuing to provide online worship services, we now have a PayPal page where you can make a contribution to the Sunday offering or to your ongoing pledge (please do indicate which it is for). Here is the link to our PayPal page: <http://bit.ly/UUCBdonate> Please join with me and the members of our Board of Directors to financially support the ongoing work of this outstanding community. This is a tangible way, no matter the amount, in which each of us can make a real difference in bringing about a better world now and for the future.

Most gratefully yours,
