

Bernstein's
M A S S

Powered by Music: Civil rights, Peace and Justice

A Panel Discussion in Honor of Leonard Bernstein's
*Mass

Saturday, April 6, 2019

2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. at the Musical Arts Center

Panelists

Reverend Bill Breeden – The Power of Music in Religious Practice

Minister Emeritus

Unitarian Universalist Church, Bloomington, Indiana

Constance Cook Glen – Leonard Bernstein: A Lifelong Commitment to Social Justice

Senior lecturer and director of the Music in General Studies

Jacobs School of Music

Marietta Simpson – The Power of Music for Racial Justice

Professor of Music (Voice) and Indiana University Rudy Professor

Chair, Jacobs School of Music Diversity Committee

Moderator

Stuart D. Yoak, Ethics Educator and Consultant, Indiana University

Co-sponsored by the UU Racial Justice Task Force.