Resilience For Youth

The two-day Resilience for Youth Training provides you with skills and strategies to interact with all students in all 3 tiers of RTI. The strategies in this engaging new program will transform the way you and your students view life's challenges.

You'll get:

- A complete overview of each unit
- Engaging activities that reinforce the principles of each unit
- A workshop on effective use of multimedia in the classroom
- Strategies for increasing engagement, improving relationships, and boosting resilience in the classroom
- Ideas for creating a school-wide culture of resilience

* Includes complete Resilience for Youth Curriculum and a free copy of our book: Resilience Breakthrough: 27 Tools for Turning Adversity Into Action

Cost: Training and Materials: FREE

(Funded by IDOC Division of Youth Services Grant Funding)

Limited to 40 participants. Up to 22 School Professionals across all school corporations who agree to facilitate the Resilience Training directly at their school corporation are eligible to receive a $240 stipend to attend.
