October and November 2019 Events and Programs at the Blount County Public Library

MARYVILLE, TN (September 16, 2019) Our fall programs are in full swing here at BCPL and we hope you come out and join us! In the meantime, we'll be continuing our Centennial year. We invite you to come out to our 100th Birthday Party on October 24, eat some cake, and enjoy the memories of the Blount County Public Library.

We're preparing for our Cormac McCarthy Literary Festival, which will take place November 1-3. We'll be welcoming some award-winning Southern Gothic authors as well as some local storytellers, artists, and other community partners.

Check out some of the other programs throughout October and November:

- Beyond the Shelves: Lives Podcast at The Bird & The Book,
- LEGO Contest and Sensory Movie Fun,
- Garden Series and Southern Appalachian Studies Series,
- Homeschool Resources @ Your Library,
- Second Friday Science Lunch (NASA downlinks),
- Focus on Seniors and the 10th Anniversary Dulcimer Concert,
- Start Your Own Podcast! 6-week Course (Open to All Ages 14 & Up)
- Free Legal Advice Clinic,
- National Novel Writing Month Write-In,
- Social Media and Computer Classes – Online Registration Required,
- Monthly Tech Class For Ages 10 and Up,
- Teen Gaming and Teen Supernatural Ball,

And much more! Pick up your copy of the monthly calendar so that you'll have your own schedule of events for October and November. These items are also available on the library website at www.blountlibrary.org We look forward to seeing you at the library!

THE BOOKMARK CAFÉ

The Bookmark Café's Centennial Celebration "100 Years of Recipes" parties on with these featured items: October (2000s) Double Chocolate Sour Cream Cupcakes; November (2010s) BLT Wraps.

The Café will also offer the following Seasonal Items: for October: Spooky Cider, Ghost Soda, Pumpkin Spiced Latte; for November: Pumpkin Pie White mocha, Mexican Mocha, Iced Salted Caramel Latte. For more information go to the library's website or click here. Come celebrate BCPL's Centennial at The Bookmark Café!

CENTENNIAL BOOK SHOWER

When the Blount County Public Library first opened in 1919, the community held a book shower to fill the shelves. Celebrate the Library's "100th Birthday" with a monetary donation for new books. Every $25 contribution will bring a new book to the library collection and be designated with a Centennial Logo sticker. Contributions gladly accepted online or in person. Form is available on the library's website or click here.

BCPL CENTENNIAL TIMELINE

Our library has been around for 100 years! Watch our changes over the last century on the BCPL Centennial Timeline: www.blountlibrary.org / scroll down to 2019 Centennial Celebrations / 100 Years of BCPL (on left) or click here.

REVIEW YOUR BOOK OR DVD!

Did you like it? Hate it? Let everyone know with a review! For instructions: Go to the library website www.blountlibrary.org / How Do I? / Learn About / Reviewing a Book or click here.

NEW WAY TO LEARN: NO CHARGE WITH YOUR BCPL CARD

Be a life-long learner. Universal Class offers over 500 online classes you can take at times convenient to you. Classes are both self-paced and instructor-led. You can be enrolled in up to 5 classes at a time and have 24/7 access to courses. From Dog Training to How to Start an Online Business to Electronics 101 to Cake Decorating to Criminology Basics or Web Development Classes, there is something here for most people. Whether for personal hobbies or something to help in your career, Universal Class offers practical information that you can put to immediate use.

Universal Class not only offers CEUs (continuing education units), the industry measurement of non-credit education, they are accredited as an Authorized Provider by the International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET).

If you don't have a computer, use the library's internet computers. To register and start learning, go to www.blountlibrary.org / Learning / Continuing Education / Universal Class Courses to set up an account with your Blount County Public Library card or click here. With your library card, there's no charge!

WHY PLAY CHESS? COME PLAY AT THE LIBRARY FOR ALL AGES

Chess helps you to: 1. Focus 2. Develop problem-solving skills 3. Exercise both sides of the brain 4. Have fun!

Who said it? "Chess teaches foresight, by having to plan ahead; vigilance, by having to keep watch over the whole chess board; caution, by having to restrain ourselves from making hasty moves; and finally, we learn from chess the greatest maxim in life — that even when everything seems to be going badly for us we should not lose heart, but always hoping for a change for the better, steadfastly continue searching for the solutions to our problems." (Benjamin Franklin)

Play chess at the library Thursdays 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturdays 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Meets in Adult Services in the Reference area of the library.

MUSIC / CONCERTS: Phone (865) 982-0981 or (865) 273-1428

- Monday, November 4, 7 p.m., "10th Anniversary Dulcimer Concert". The Maryville Area Dulcimer Club has played their dulcimers and shared their music for 10 years. Come and listen to some excellent music played on a variety of dulcimers. This program will be in the Main Gallery.

NEW EVENTS: Phone 865-982-0981 or 865-273-1428 (See recurring events below the new events)

- Through Thursday, October 31, "Seed Library @ BCPL," will be available during library hours and for all ages. There will be seeds available and located in the Reference Area of Adult Services and a location for kids in Youth Services end of the main desk. To check out seeds you must have a valid Blount County Public Library card. Please go to the library website or click here for further information.
- Through Thursday, October 31, "Ugly Vegetable Contest." For All Ages! The Seed Library @BCPL announces our first ever "Ugly Vegetable Contest!" As lots of veggies are producing, even though they're tasty and healthy for us, let's face it, some are prettier than others. So, we want to celebrate even the ugly ones, because they're just as delicious. If you've got a tomato that's not perfect, or a cucumber that's not comely, send a photo to spennycuff@blounttn.org, and include your name and the name of the variety if you know it. Please send a selfie photo, in addition to the ugly vegetable close-up, with you and your veggie. We'll award a winner on Thursday, October 31, for the prize of a $100.00 gift card to our local garden center, "Out Of Eden." So, if your pumpkin is puckered, or your gourd isn't gorgeous, be sure to share it with us. Watch the library's Facebook and Instagram pages for some spotlights on your entries, throughout the season!

- October 1 – 31, “Happy 100th Birthday”. On October 24, 1919, the Blount County Public Library first opened its doors to the people of Maryville, Alcoa and Blount County. We will be having a special celebration on this day.
  - Thursday, October 24, 4 p.m., “Happy 100th Birthday Party.” You’re invited for the library’s “Happy 100th Birthday” Celebration. Hear the first reading of the proclamation marking this historic occasion, learn about the history of how our local library was formed, sing Happy Birthday, and have a piece of cake! This event is free and open to the public, sponsored by the Blount County Friends of the Library. The party will be in the Main Gallery.
- Friday, October 4, 6:30 p.m. until 8 p.m., “Beyond the Shelves: Live Podcast!” at The Bird & The Book. All Ages Welcome! Don’t miss a spectacular live edition of the library’s humorous and offbeat podcast that takes listeners behind the scenes and beyond the shelves. Meet special guests, enjoy live music and laugh with us! This off-site event takes place at The Bird & The Book, a family-friendly pub located at 1509 E. Broadway Ave. (behind Southland Books).
- Tuesday, October 8, 7 p.m., “Garden Series: Native Plants and Pollinators,” presented by Becky Hornyak and Louminda Torbett. One hour of exciting information on what native plants and pollinators grow easily in east Tennessee, where to find these native plants, how to use them in your landscape and more! Sponsored by Blount County Master Gardeners and Blount County Extension Office. This program will be in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Fridays, October 11 and November 8, noon until 2 p.m., “Second Friday Science Lunch.” We’ll screen NASA downlinks and broadcasts and other up-to-the-moment science and tech shows, with additional interactive activities for all ages. Bring your lunch if you like and join the conversation in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Monday, October 14, 6:30 p.m. “Homeschool Resources @ Your Library.” Do you know everything your library offers? From books, DVDs, electronic resources, and special collections, the library provides many resources that could be especially useful to homeschooling families. Join Nikki Branam-Snyder, homeschooling mom and librarian from the Ocoee Regional Library system, and Andrea Zielke, librarian from the Tennessee State Library and Archives, as they share resource ideas for homeschool families. There will also be a round table discussion with local homeschool representatives. This will be held in the Sharon Lawson Room.

- Monday, October 21, 7 p.m., “Southern Appalachian Studies Series: Man of Sorrow, the Life and Times of Carter Stanley.” Presented by Gary Reid—actor, musician, historian, and author. Reid will perform a one-man show based on the life and times of Carter Stanley, the brother of Ralph Stanley. Reid uses a mix of storytelling and music to bring to life the saga of an Appalachian mountain music treasure. This program will be in the Main Gallery.
- Tuesdays, October 22 through November 26, 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., “Start Your Own Podcast!” Ever wanted to start a podcast, but think that you don’t have the equipment, skills, or time? Experienced podcaster Clay Kriese will teach you how easy it can be. In this six week course, you’ll learn about recording, production, editing, marketing, monetizing, and more. Online registration is required. Class size is limited and classes are cumulative. Open to ages 14 and up. This will be in the Learning Lab, a stand-alone building on Cusick Street, across from the library’s outdoor sign.
- Wednesday, October 23, 11 a.m. until 12 Noon, “Focus on Seniors: Medicare Matters,” presented by Joani Shaver of the Blount County Office on Aging. Attention! Open enrollment for 2020 is October 15 - December 7, from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. and Noon until 4 p.m. There will be an overview of Medicare options and changes for 2020. Medicare counselors will be available to assist individuals with reviewing choices and enrolling in different plans before and after the program. For an appointment on October 23 with the Medicare counselors, call the SHIP (State Health Insurance Assistance Program) office at 844-887-7447. Program and appointments will be in Sharon Lawson Room.
- Friday, October 25, 7:30 a.m. to 10 a.m., “It’s Your Career: Managing Conflict,” is part of an ongoing series of Soft Skill workshops designed to take your career to the next level. In this workshop you will gain insights into your conflict management style and the styles of your team. Discover your own emotional triggers, explore ways to deal with conflict, and leave with best practices you can apply in professional and personal settings. Class format features a short lecture on each topic, case studies discussion in small groups and resources for use in businesses and organizations. Bring your mobile device, tablet or laptop, or one will be provided for your use. All participants will earn .5 CEUs (Continuing Education Unit) for participating. Registration begins September 30. This class will be at the Blount County Public Library’s Learning Lab, a stand-alone building on Cusick Street, across from the library’s outdoor sign. Registration is required. For class synopsis and registration information, go to <https://www.blountchamber.com/community/festivals-events/soft-skills/> Soft Skills are strengthened and developed over time and are necessary if you desire to climb the career ladder. The classes are a collaboration of Blount Partnership, Adult Education Foundation of Blount County and the Blount County Public Library. For more information go to bcpl.populr.me/itsyourcareer
- Saturday, October 26, 9 a.m. to 12 noon. “Free Legal Advice Clinic.” Volunteer attorneys from the Blount County Bar Association will join Legal Aid of East Tennessee staff attorneys to provide free advice on various legal matters. “Legal help will be available on a first come, first served basis,” says Dr. Kathryn Ellis, LAET’s Pro Bono Project Director.

“The public will be able to seek advice on topics such as adoption, child custody & support, criminal defense, divorce, elder law, foreclosure, identity theft, personal injury, VA benefits, wills, worker’s comp, and more.” The clinic is open to the public regardless of income level. No appointment is necessary. The clinic will be in the Sharon Lawson Room of the library. For more information regarding this program, please contact Legal Aid of East Tennessee at 307 Ellis Avenue, Maryville, Tennessee 37801, (865) 981-1818 or (856) 637-0484, or visit www.laet.org.

- Friday, Saturday, & Sunday, November 1, 2 & 3, “Cormac McCarthy Literary Festival” celebrates authors preserving culture, sparking conversation and weaving tales in Appalachia. Please come and join us for this three day festival, November 1st-3rd, 2019, featuring national, regional and local authors such as Ron Rash, Sharyn McCrumb, Amy Greene, Frank X. Walker, Lin Stepp and more! The festival will include celebration of local history and the Blount County Public Library's Centennial. There will be live Appalachian arts demonstrations, musical performances and fun activities for the whole family to engage with East Tennessee’s unique literary history. The festival is named after Cormac McCarthy to highlight his time in Blount County and also a piece of public art he made in 1971 while living here. For more author and schedule information please go to the library’s website or go to the library’s Facebook Event page for more updates!
- Tuesday, November 5, 6:30 p.m., “Southern Appalachian Studies Series: City of Alcoa Centennial DVD.” Presented by David R. Duggan, Blount County Circuit Court Judge and City of Alcoa historian. Duggan will introduce, present, and answer questions pertaining to this engaging DVD of Alcoa’s first 100 years. This program will be in the Main Gallery of the library.
- Fridays, November 8, noon until 2 p.m., “Second Friday Science Lunch.” We’ll screen NASA downlinks and broadcasts and other up-to-the-moment science and tech shows, with additional interactive activities for all ages. Bring your lunch if you like and join the conversation in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, November 9, 11 a.m., “A Salute to Veterans Past and Present.” Veterans and the Armed Forces have provided not just protection and defense but a unifying symbol for the nation. We appreciate the service and sacrifice of all of the men and women who have donned the military uniform, and this event is our way of expressing that appreciation. As such, the public is invited and encouraged to attend. In addition to our salute to veterans, we will be launching two new publications from the Blount County Friends of the Library: Loyal Mountaineers: The Civil War Memoirs of Will McTeer and Vietnam Voices: Stories of East Tennesseans Who Served in Vietnam, 1965-1975 (vol. 1). Reception to follow. Sponsored by the Blount County Friends of the Library in partnership with the Blount County Veteran Affairs Office. This event will be held in the Main Gallery of the library.
- Saturdays, November 9, 23 and 30, 1 p.m. until 4 p.m., “National Novel Writing Month Write-In.” Join your fellow writers in a dedicated space to get that word count up! We provide tables (with electrical outlets) and wifi; you provide the inspiration. These are welcoming, unstructured writing sessions in the Reading Rotunda and Main Gallery.

- Monday, November 11, “Library Closed in Honor of Veterans Day.”
- Tuesday, November 12, 7 p.m., “Garden Series: Yardstick Gardening.” Presenter Nicky Linneman, will teach you how to evaluate the environmental friendliness of your yard and what steps you can implement to make it more environmentally friendly. Join others at this one-hour program for some fun information and facts that will make you look at your yard in a holistic fashion! Sponsored by Blount County Master Gardeners and Blount County Extension Office. This program will be in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, November 16, 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. (3rd Saturday of every other month), “Appalachian Reads Book Club.” The book discussion this month is The Tall Woman by Wilma Dykeman. Tennessee Historian Wilma Dykeman was an author, teacher, columnist, and environmentalist who was passionate about the need for education in Appalachia. The book deals with a post-Civil War family in the mountains whose many needs included a school for their children. Discussion will be led by Jan Taylor, who teaches writing at Maryville College. The book group will meet in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Saturday, November 16, 1 p.m. until 4 p.m., “National Novel Writing Month: Halfway There Party.” You’ve made it halfway through NaNoWriMo, so celebrate with us — and, more importantly, write with us! We’ll have coffee and treats for fuel, with door prizes and other surprises. We’ll keep it low-key, though; the goal is writing! Laptops will be available for writers’ use, but please remember to save your work to the cloud or your own flash drive. Find the quietest party in town in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Monday, November 18, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., “Computer and Electronics Free Training and Education Session.” Cellairis Alcoa is hosting their first ever computer, cell phone and tablet no-cost education session and town hall-style Q & A. The goal is to educate and empower local residents of Maryville, Alcoa, Knoxville and all of the surrounding communities. Space is limited to 50 seats. For questions, you may call 865-268-7517. Also, you can go to the Facebook Event Page to reserve your spot. Drinks and snacks will be provided. Cellairis Alcoa is partnering with the Blount County Public Library for this event. This will be held in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Wednesday, November 20, 11 a.m. “Focus on Seniors: Medicare & Drug Plans,” presented by Joani Shaver of the Blount County Office on Aging and Pat Collins, BS Pharm. Medicare open enrollment ends on December 7. Appointment times are from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. and Noon until 4 p.m. This program provides a review of Medicare and drug plan options available for 2020. Medicare counselors will be available to assist individuals with reviewing choices and enrolling in different plans before and after the program. For an appointment on November 20, before or after the program, call the SHIP (State Health Insurance Assistance Program) office at 844-887-7447. The program and appointments will be in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Friday, November 22, 7:30 a.m. to 10 a.m., “It’s Your Career: Building Success by Developing Leadership,” is part of an ongoing series of Soft Skill workshops designed to take your career to the next level. In this workshop you will learn the difference between management and leadership. Explore the characteristics, qualities and attributes of proven leaders, and see how you can develop these traits within yourself and others. Class format features a short lecture on each topic, case studies discussion in small groups and resources for use in businesses and organizations. Bring your mobile device, tablet or laptop, or one will be provided for your use. All participants will earn .5 CEUs (Continuing Education Unit) for participating. Registration begins October 28. This class will be at the Blount County Public Library's Learning Lab, a stand-alone building on Cusick Street, across from the library's outdoor sign. ## TEEN PROGRAMS – Phone 865-273-1414:

Special Programs:

- Through Thursday, October 31, “Seed Library @ BCPL,” will be available during library hours and for all ages. There will be seeds available and located in the Reference Area of Adult Services and a location for kids in Youth Services end of the main desk. To check out seeds you must have a valid Blount County Public Library card. Please go to the library website or click here for further information.
- Through Thursday, October 31, “Ugly Vegetable Contest.” For All Ages! The Seed Library @BCPL announces our first ever "Ugly Vegetable Contest!" As lots of veggies are producing, even though they're tasty and healthy for us, let's face it, some are prettier than others. So, we want to celebrate even the ugly ones, because they're just as delicious. If you've got a tomato that's not perfect, or a cucumber that's not comely, send a photo to spennycuff@blounttn.org, and include your name and the name of the variety if you know it. Please send a selfie photo, in addition to the ugly vegetable close-up, with you and your veggie. We'll award a winner on Thursday, October 31, for the prize of a $100.00 gift card to our local garden center, "Out Of Eden." So, if your pumpkin is puckered, or your gourd isn't gorgeous, be sure to share it with us. Watch the library's Facebook and Instagram pages for some spotlights on your entries, throughout the season!
- Saturday, October 5, 10:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m., “LEGO Contest.” Ages 17 and under come by and pick up a copy of the complete rules for the Children’s Library fourth semi-annual competition of creativity and engineering — now with a teen category (up to age 17)! Even if you don’t enter, be sure to come by during the contest to view the fabulous entries and vote for “Fan Favorite”! You must deliver entries by 10:30 a.m. and pick them up by 4 p.m. Voting closes at 1 p.m., and prizes will be announced soon after. Entries must be your own creation and sizes must follow official rules. See full official rules and categories. Deliver entries – and vote on winners! – in the Children’s Library.
- Saturday, October 5, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., “3D Computer Modeling and Animation.” Enjoy animated movies like Finding Nemo and the Incredibles? Have you ever wondered how animated movies are made, or how cartoon characters are created? In this workshop, students will learn the basics of 3D computer graphics, create and model using the web based Clara.io. No previous experience is required. Open to all ages 10 and up. Tech classes for tweens and teens are led by science educator Thomas Proffen of ORCSGirls and are open to boys and girls of all ages interested in fun, hands-on learning experiences with STEM topics! Located in the Learning Lab, a stand-alone building on Cusick Street, across from the library’s outdoor sign.
- Fridays, October 11 and November 8, noon until 2:00 p.m., “Second Friday Science Lunch.” We’ll screen NASA downlinks and broadcasts and other up-to-the-moment science and tech shows, with additional interactive activities for all ages. Bring your lunch if you like and join the conversation in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Want to walk in space? We do, too -- someday. But for now, we have the chance to watch today's astronauts' spacewalk! Join us for a brown-bag viewing of NASA's stream of International Space Station Mission 57 Spacewalk! We'll screen NASA's live cast on our three big screens, plus we'll have some hands-on activities for kids. Bring your lunch and hang out with us to watch the action in orbit. All ages welcome! The spacewalk will begin before 8 a.m. and run all day. We'll screen NASA's coverage during the two hours of the program, near the end of the adventure. This program takes place in the Sharon Lawson Room.

- Saturday, October 12, 2 p.m. 4 p.m., “Teen Gaming.” Middle to High School Age. Games of all kinds! Board games, Wii Sports, Super Smash Bros., MarioKart, or bring your own tabletop game or video game console and games to share. We'll use multiple screens to multiply the fun. Bring friends! This will be held in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Tuesdays, October 22 through November 26, 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., “Start Your Own Podcast!” Ever wanted to start a podcast, but think that you don't have the equipment, skills, or time? Experienced podcaster Clay Kriese will teach you how easy it can be. In this six week course, you'll learn about recording, production, editing, marketing, monetizing, and more. Online registration is required. Class size is limited and classes are cumulative. Open to ages 14 and up. This will be in the Learning Lab, a stand-alone building on Cusick Street, across from the library's outdoor sign.
- Saturday, October 26, 2 p.m. until 5 p.m., “Supernatural Ball.” The lords of misrule and mayhem – or at least of spooky fun – will rule the library in this shindig full of chills and treats. Wear your favorite costume and join in the fun in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Friday, Saturday, & Sunday, November 1, 2 & 3, “Cormac McCarthy Literary Festival” celebrates authors preserving culture, sparking conversation and weaving tales in Appalachia. Please come and join us for this three day festival, November 1st-3rd, 2019, featuring national, regional and local authors such as Ron Rash, Sharyn McCrumb, Amy Greene, Frank X. Walker, Lin Stepp and more! The festival will include celebration of local history and the Blount County Public Library's Centennial. There will be live Appalachian arts demonstrations, musical performances and fun activities for the whole family to engage with East Tennessee's unique literary history. The festival is named after Cormac McCarthy to highlight his time in Blount County and also a piece of public art he made in 1971 while living here. For more author and schedule information please go to the library's website or go to the library's Facebook Event page for more updates!
- Fridays, November 8, noon until 2 p.m., “Second Friday Science Lunch.” We'll screen NASA downlinks and broadcasts and other up-to-the-moment science and tech shows, with additional interactive activities for all ages. Bring your lunch if you like and join the conversation in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, November 9, 1 p.m. until 4 p.m., “Teen Gaming with Special Event: Super Smash Bros. Ultimate Tournament.” Our usual slate of Wii and board games will continue, but this month, teens can test their skill in the next round of our smash-hit Smash Tournament. To get on the bracket, sign up at the Children's Desk (or email ckriese@blounttn.org or call 865-273-1414), starting November 2. As always, you're also invited to bring your own tabletop game or video game console and games to share. Gaming will take place in the Sharon Lawson Room.

- Saturday, November 9, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., “Machine Learning.” All around us tools are getting smarter from voice recognition to finding faces in pictures thanks to machine learning. Wonder how this works? In this class girls and boys will learn about the basics of machine learning, and gain some hands-on experience by running a machine learning example in Python. Open to all ages 10 and up. Tech classes for tweens and teens are led by science educator Thomas Proffen of ORCSGirls and are open to boys and girls of all ages interested in fun, hands-on learning experiences with STEM topics! Located in the Learning Lab, a stand-alone building on Cusick Street, across from the library's outdoor sign.
- Saturdays, November 9, 23 and 30, 1 p.m. until 4 p.m., “National Novel Writing Month Write-In.” Join your fellow writers in a dedicated space to get that word count up! We provide tables (with electrical outlets) and wifi; you provide the inspiration. These are welcoming, unstructured writing sessions in the Reading Rotunda and Main Gallery.
- Monday, November 11, “Library Closed in Honor of Veterans Day.”
- Saturday, November 16, 1 p.m. until 4 p.m., “National Novel Writing Month: Halfway There Party.” Teens are especially invited! You've made it halfway through NaNoWriMo, so celebrate with us — and, more importantly, write with us! We'll have coffee and treats for fuel, with door prizes and other surprises. We'll keep it low-key, though; the goal is writing! Laptops will be available for writers' use, but please remember to save your work to the cloud or your own flash drive. Find the quietest party in town in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, November 23, 2 p.m. until 4 p.m., “Dungeon Master Bootcamp.” Want to be a DM but aren't sure how to begin? BCPL's resident Dungeon Master Ashten Royse will lead a workshop on Dungeons & Dragons playstyle, how to handle players and the roles and responsibilities of DMs. Refreshments will, of course, be served. The quest to become a DM begins in Dorothy Herron Room A.

Librarian and longtime quilter, will be the instructor for this adventure in hand quilting. It will meet in Kathy Pagles Board Room. “If Grandma and a feed sack in a backwoods cabin can make a quilt, so can you.”

- Monday, October 7 and Monday, November 4, 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. (1st Monday of each month), “Are You Smarter than a Librarian?” All Ages Are Welcome! While on the job, librarians learn new things every day. So it's safe to say that we're pretty smart. But now you have a chance to test your knowledge against one of us! If you beat one of our librarian's scores, you could walk away with an extra prize! The library's monthly trivia challenge covers a variety of topics, from geography and history to pop culture and sports. Bring your teammates and compete for a prize! This event is in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Saturday, October 19 and Saturday, November 16, 3 p.m. until 4 p.m., “YA Café.” All teens are invited to engage in discussions about favorite books and media, with coffee and cookies. YA Café meets in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Saturday, October 19 and Saturday, November 16, 4 p.m. until 5 p.m., “Laser TAB: Teen Advisory Board.” Help plan library programs and activities. Recommend books and videos for the library's collection. Basically, you can help make the library a better space for teens. If you're in the 6th through 12th grade, you can join! Laser TAB meets monthly in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Tuesdays, 5:30 p.m. until 8 p.m., “Dungeons & Dragons.” Now operating via Signups Only! If you are interested in joining, email bcpldnd@gmail.com to reserve your spot. All ages (12 and up) and skill levels can join in the fun of this tabletop role-playing game by learning about D&D and sharing your love of fantasy gaming! The group meets in the Main Gallery of the library.
- Thursdays, 4:30 p.m. until 5:30 p.m., “Micronational Club.” Recommended for ages 8 to 18. Have you ever dreamed of ruling over your own country? Here's your chance! What will the laws, customs, and history be? You decide. What will the flag, coins, and postage stamps look like? You will create them. With a different project each week, you'll build an empire! For more information go to the Micronational Club Starter Packet. This club usually meets in the Main Gallery.
- Thursdays, 5:30 p.m. until 8 p.m., “Thursday Night Gaming.” All ages welcome! If you're into any sort of analogue gaming, the Main Gallery of the Library is where you want to be! Interested in the Pokémon Card Game? Bring a deck and meet-up with local players, or learn to play with one of our decks. Like board games? Choose from our selection of tabletop favorites. Join the game in the Main Gallery.
- Thursdays, 1 p.m. until 4 p.m., “Play Chess at the Library: Every Thursday.” All Ages are invited to play chess (or learn how to play) most Thursdays. Grandmaster Simon Williams said, “The beauty of chess is it can be whatever you want it to be.” What will chess be for you? You are welcome to come join or just enjoy watching the game. This will be held in Adult Services in the Reference Area of the library

- Saturdays, 10 a.m. until 3 p.m., “Play Chess at the Library: Every Saturday.” All Ages are invited to play chess (or learn how to play) most Saturdays. ### CHILDREN’S PROGRAMS: Phone: 865-273-1414

Special Programs for Children (Preschool through Tween)

- Through Thursday, October 31, “Seed Library @ BCPL,” will be available during library hours and for all ages. There will be seeds available and located in the Reference Area of Adult Services and a location for kids in Youth Services end of the main desk. To check out seeds you must have a valid Blount County Public Library card. Please go to the library website or click here for further information.
- Through Thursday, October 31, “Ugly Vegetable Contest.” For All Ages! The Seed Library @BCPL announces our first ever "Ugly Vegetable Contest!" As lots of veggies are producing, even though they're tasty and healthy for us, let's face it, some are prettier than others. So, we want to celebrate even the ugly ones, because they're just as delicious. If you've got a tomato that's not perfect, or a cucumber that's not comely, send a photo to spennycuff@blounttn.org, and include your name and the name of the variety if you know it. Please send a selfie photo, in addition to the ugly vegetable close-up, with you and your veggie. We'll award a winner on Thursday, October 31, for the prize of a $100.00 gift card to our local garden center, "Out Of Eden." So, if your pumpkin is puckered, or your gourd isn't gorgeous, be sure to share it with us. Watch the library's Facebook and Instagram pages for some spotlights on your entries, throughout the season!
- Saturday, October 5, 10:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m., “LEGO Contest.” Ages 17 and under come by and pick up a copy of the complete rules for the Children’s Library fourth semi-annual competition of creativity and engineering — now with a teen category (up to age 17)! Even if you don’t enter, be sure to come by during the contest to view the fabulous entries and vote for “Fan Favorite”! You must deliver entries by 10:30 a.m. and pick them up by 4 p.m. Voting closes at 1 p.m., and prizes will be announced soon after. Entries must be your own creation and sizes must follow official rules. See full official rules and categories. Deliver entries – and vote on winners! – in the Children’s Library.
- Saturday, October 5, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., “3D Computer Modeling and Animation.” Enjoy animated movies like Finding Nemo and the Incredibles? Have you ever wondered how animated movies are made, or how cartoon characters are created? In this workshop, students will learn the basics of 3D computer graphics, create and model using the web based Clara.io. No previous experience is required. Open to all ages 10 and up. Tech classes for tweens and teens are led by science educator Thomas Proffen of ORCSGirls and are open to boys and girls of all ages interested in fun, hands-on learning experiences with STEM topics! Located in the Learning Lab, a stand-alone building on Cusick Street, across from the library's outdoor sign.

- Fridays, October 11 and November 8, noon until 2:00 p.m., “Second Friday Science Lunch.” We’ll screen NASA downlinks and broadcasts and other up-to-the-moment science and tech shows, with additional interactive activities for all ages. Bring your lunch if you like and join the conversation in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, October 12, 10:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m., “STEAM Festival!” This annual celebration of science, tech, engineering, arts and math will bring a host of fun, hands-on activities for all ages, all day long! The fun kicks off with a wacky science show from Mr. Bond’s Science Guys at 10:30 a.m. in the Main Gallery. STEAM Festival is made possible by the support of the Blount County Friends of the Library.
Join us for a full day of hands-on fun!

- Saturday, October 19, 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m., “Sensory Movie Fun: ‘Monsters Inc.’” Proof that not all monsters are scary! Pixar’s beloved hit movie takes us into a world where monsters come in all shapes and sizes. This movie is rated G. Everyone is welcome! Our “Sensory Movie Fun” approach welcomes little ones (and bigger ones!) with sensory and attention issues, providing moderate lighting and a low-stress environment, plus LEGOs and crafts for busy hands. This event is welcoming for but not limited to those with sensory or attention issues. The film screens in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, October 26, 10:30 until noon, “Family Storytime.” Youngsters and their families can share stories, crafts and games to get in the fall mood; this event is welcoming to families that do not celebrate Halloween. Family Storytime helps encourage important early literacy skills. This event takes place throughout the Children’s Library.
- Thursday, October 31, 4:00 p.m. until 7:30 p.m., “Trick or Read.” If you celebrate Halloween, wear your costume to the library for the best kind of treats – books! Visit any service desk (or all of them) and get candy and even a free children’s book to keep. Be on the lookout for library staff in costume, too. Get your treats in the Children’s Library, Adult Services and Patron Services areas.
- Friday, Saturday, & Sunday, November 1, 2 & 3, “Cormac McCarthy Literary Festival” celebrates authors preserving culture, sparking conversation and weaving tales in Appalachia. Please come and join us for this three day festival, November 1st-3rd, 2019, featuring national, regional and local authors such as Ron Rash, Sharyn McCrumb, Amy Greene, Frank X. Walker, Lin Stepp and more! The festival will include celebration of local history and the Blount County Public Library's Centennial. There will be live Appalachian arts demonstrations, musical performances and fun activities for the whole family to engage with East Tennessee's unique literary history. The festival is named after Cormac McCarthy to highlight his time in Blount County and also a piece of public art he made in 1971 while living here. For more author and schedule information please go to the library's website or go to the library's Facebook Event page for more updates!

- Saturday, November 9, 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m., “Sensory Movie Fun: ‘Coco’” Join one boy's musical adventure to connect with his family, through holidays, music and the power of love. This Disney-Pixar feature is rated PG. Everyone is welcome! Our “Sensory Movie Fun” approach welcomes little ones (and bigger ones!) with sensory and attention issues, providing moderate lighting and a low-stress environment, plus LEGOs and crafts for busy hands. This event is welcoming for but not limited to those with sensory or attention issues. The film screens in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, November 9, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., “Machine Learning.” All around us tools are getting smarter from voice recognition to finding faces in pictures thanks to machine learning. Wonder how this works? In this class girls and boys will learn about the basics of machine learning, and gain some hands-on experience by running a machine learning example in Python. Open to all ages 10 and up. Tech classes for tweens and teens are led by science educator Thomas Proffen of ORCSGirls and are open to boys and girls of all ages interested in fun, hands-on learning experiences with STEM topics! Located in the Learning Lab, a stand-alone building on Cusick Street, across from the library's outdoor sign.
