

Black Lives Matter

As a community of Buddhist practitioners and in light of recent tragic events, we at Kunzang Palyul Choling want to wholeheartedly express our support of Black Lives Matter.

We recognize the systemic racism towards Black people: slavery, failed Reconstruction after the Civil War, multiple generations of Jim Crow, redlining, and the systemic dismantling of civil rights protections that continues to this day with laws that suppress voting and an increasingly reactionary court system at the District and Federal levels. Just to cite a few.

We recognize that it is not enough to hope and pray for things to change. We must act on these aspirations and work to bring about equity and justice.

KPC stands for social justice and equally stands beside our Black brothers and sisters. We are engaged as community advocates and allies in efforts in our area to stop this violence against Black men, women and children. We are allies in the work towards a system of just law enforcement that does not unfairly target people of color. Black Lives Matter.

Kunzang Palyul Choling (KPC) is a Buddhist Temple in the Nyingma Tradition, founded by Her Eminence Jetsunma Ahkon Lhamo Rinpoche under the guidance of His Holiness Penor Rinpoche.
