

POTOMAC AREA INTERFAITH COMMUNITIES (PAIC) – STATEMENT

The Potomac Area Interfaith Communities (PAIC) strives for inclusion for all, and in light of current events, we reiterate our sincere commitment to providing safe, supportive, and inclusive sacred environments for all our members and visitors. We are a community made up of diverse people from different backgrounds, generations, cultures, and spiritual practices. We want to consistently stand together to eradicate racism within our communities by listening to and appreciating the many voices that make up our organizations. And we pledge to call out any words or actions on racism that may arise in our congregations, to help us all live up to and live into our sacred teachings on the preciousness of all life, and the equal vision of all being God's children.
