

Holy Envy: An Interfaith Exploration

Saturday, March 7

Saint Alban's Episcopal Church

9:30am - 2:30pm

Barbara Brown Taylor, best-selling author, preacher, teacher and Episcopal priest, will speak with us about teaching and learning about world religions at a rural Southern college and how it has deepened her faith, the focus of her fourteenth and latest book, Holy Envy (2019). Time magazine included Barbara on their 2014 list of the most influential people the year. Named Georgia's Woman of the Year in 2015, she has served on the faculties of Columbia Theological Seminary, the Candler School of Religion at Emory University, and Piedmont College, among others. She is a frequent preacher and lecturer at the Chautauqua Institution.

The afternoon panel will be facilitated by the Rev. Dr. Carol Flett, co-chair of the Montgomery County's Faith Community Working Group. Panelists will include:

- Dr. Richa Agarwala - Hindu, researcher at NIH; member of Chinmaya Mission in Silver Spring.
- Melinda Baird - Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Director of Piano Programs, Levine School of Music
- Simeon M. Kriesberg - Jewish, retired lawyer, past officer of many Jewish communal organizations, including Washington Hebrew Congregation, the Jewish Community Relations Council.
- Hema Sidhu PhD - Sikh, neuroscience researcher, member of the Guru Nanak Foundation of America, Silver Spring.
- Ananda Vrindavan - Hare Krishna; Community President of ISKCON of DC, a community dedicated to supporting each individual on their spiritual journey.
