What does it mean to be called to something?

Take a moment and think about what a calling in your life could be, maybe do some investigating and ask some of the adults in your life about what they have felt called to in their life?

What is the difference between a calling and a passion?

What are some things that you feel or have felt called to in the past?

Take a second and read John 1:43-51. Here we read about Jesus calling some of his disciples.

We do not get much from the first call of Phillip. Jesus says to Phillip, 'follow me' and he does. But we get a much better look at Nathaniel's call to be a part of the group of close disciples.

Phillip is the one who tells Nathaniel about Jesus, what is his response?

Nathaniel is convinced fairly quickly to start following, what do you think helped Nathaniel understand his call?

What does Jesus promise Nathaniel during their exchange?

Can a person have more than one call?
