

Side by Side

Do me a favor, think about your best friend in the world.

What are some of the things that you really like about your best friend?

What about some of the things you dislike about them?

What is your favorite memory that you have of them?

There is a person in the Bible named Paul, and he also has a best friend. His best friend's name is Barnabas. He and Barnabas did a lot together and we get some of those stories in the book of Acts. If you want to read about it, you can look at Acts 13.

Why do you think Jesus' disciples always went out in pairs?

Do you think that relationships are an important part of being a Christian?

What is it like to work with someone you like?

How does it make the job (group project) easier and more enjoyable?

How do you think having someone to accompany him made Paul feel?
