

FINANCING A PEOPLE'S ECONOMY IN THE BRONX:

A BOROUGH-WIDE TOWN HALL ON PUBLIC BANKING

Join community groups and elected leaders from across The Bronx as we discuss the growing movement for public banking. You'll learn about:

- How, instead of continuing to deposit our public dollars in Wall Street banks, NYC can create its own bank to manage public money and invest in our communities' needs.
- How a public bank would support existing efforts in The Bronx to build community wealth, including community development credit unions, worker cooperatives, and community land trusts.
- Why The Bronx is absolutely central to citywide and statewide movements to make public banking a reality, and how you can get involved!
