

An Invitation to Pray Together

Following Jesus Together Through the 40-Day Prayer Covenant

What would happen if individuals, church leaders, sessions, committees, and congregations across the Presbytery of Cincinnati committed themselves to praying the same prayer each day for forty days?

At the August Presbytery gathering, every congregation represented will receive copies of The Prayer Covenant Companion, a 40-day devotional guide written by Rev. Stephen Eyre, Dr. Jerry Kirk, Candy Marballi, and Rick Schatz.

Rather than promoting another program, this invitation is simply an invitation to pray.

The Prayer Covenant is built around ten simple themes that shape the Christian life:

- Grace
- Love
- Compassion
- Repentance
- Worship
- Commitment
- Dependence
- Influence
- Discipleship
- Authority

Each day includes a brief Scripture passage, devotional reflection, and question for personal reflection or discussion with a prayer partner, followed by praying the Prayer Covenant together.

While many churches have found the guide especially meaningful during Lent, it is designed to be used at any time of year by individuals, small groups, leadership teams, or entire congregations.

During the August Presbytery meeting, Rev. Stephen Eyre and Ron Cowgill will briefly introduce the Prayer Covenant and explain how churches may use this resource in ways that fit their own ministries.

We hope you'll join us as we seek to follow Jesus together through prayer.
