

The Westwood Common Good Project is a simple idea:
strong communities are built on strong relationships.

Each workshop explores a key community theme, but the real work is happening between neighbors who are building trust, deepening connections, and creating the social capital needed to move Westwood forward together.

Real connections start here.

A COLLABORATIVE EFFORT BY

