Dear Mr. Brown,

Reaching students with real opportunities to experience science first-hand is a passion that IEEE and CASEF share. However, our work would not be possible without your willingness to take time from your busy schedule to share your expertise and encouragement as a judge at our annual fair competition. It was so nice to have IEEE with us again this year. The students you selected to receive your awards through our fair will go forward from this period inspired to continue honing their scientific knowledge and skills, hopefully to ends which benefit IEEE specifically, but also the scientific community in general.

On behalf of CASEF, its students, their parents and their teachers, I extend my personal and sincere appreciation for your great gifts of time, talent, and treasure to us all.

Very respectfully yours,

Rebecca Lowe
