

Naples, Florida-based Anti-Aging Medical Practice for Sale.

The successful concierge practice was started in 2000, the owner is a board-certified and well-respected internal medicine physician in Southwest Florida.

The anti-aging practice specializes in hormone balancing and functional medicine and was one of the first in the area. Naples, FL is a high-income and highly sought-after location.

Anti-Aging Practice Description:

- Concierge practice: no insurance/100% cash-based
- Internal Medicine (insurance-based) practice (established in 1976) also available for sale, physician serves both
- Each practice separately generates at least $400 K + /year in revenue, based on a 4 day work week

Listing Price for practices is negotiable; they can be purchased separately or together.