

Navigating Florida's Medical Landscape

CME sessions will address key issues that affect FL-licensed physicians. Includes all mandatory CME for MDs and DOs.

The Florida Medical Association is pleased to partner with NCH Healthcare System to offer these courses via livestream on October 30.

Following the live event, participants will have 24/7 access to the recording through November 30.

To register, email your name, medical license number, and date of birth (required for CME reporting).

Annette Campbell at annette.campbell@nchmd.org by Friday, October 2.

Florida Laws, Rules & Ethics for Healthcare Professionals

9:00-10:00am

Required for Osteopathic physicians licensed in Florida. Allopathic physicians will earn general CME credit.

Presenter: Mike Igel, Esq., Co-Chair, Johnson Pope's Health Care Team

Controlled Substance Prescribing

10:15-12:15pm

Fulfills Florida CME requirements for DEA-registered MDs and DOs authorized to prescribe controlled substances and covers current prescribing standards.

Presenter: Joshua Lenchus, DO, Medical Director, Aetna, and FMA Past President

Domestic Violence

12:45-2:45pm

This course fulfills the renewal requirement for allopathic and osteopathic physicians in Florida.

Presenter: Ryan Hall, MD, Clinical/Forensic Psychiatrist & FMA Secretary Ruby Peters, Human Trafficking Educator

Prevention of Medical Errors

3:00-5:00pm

Features the mandatory content required by the Florida Boards of Medicine and Osteopathic Medicine.

Presenter: Marc Kaprow, DO, MHA, Chief Medical Officer, Florida Medicaid at Simple Healthcare

Learners registered with the partner facility will receive an email from the FMA with instructions to access the recorded courses and their evaluation/claim credit form from their FMA account profile. All physicians have an FMA account and are eligible to participate regardless of FMA membership status.

CME Accreditation and Designation Statements:

The Florida Medical Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Florida Medical Association designates this enduring materials activity for a maximum of seven (7) AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CME Disclosure Information:

The planners and presenters of these courses have no relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies, except Joshua Lenchus, DO who disclosed the following: Consultant: Medline Industries* This relationship has been mitigated.

