

The Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission continues its Courageous Conversation speaker series on Wednesday, March 4, 2021, at 10:00 AM CST with a panel discussion titled Representative Equity: Women in Politics.

The event will serve as a precursor to International Women's Day (March 8), a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women around the world.

The panelists for the discussion are Regina Mayor, Sandra Masters; former Canadian Senator, Dr. Lillian Dyck; Greater Saskatoon Catholic Schools Board Chair, Diane Boyko; former Saskatoon West Member of Parliament, Sheri Benson; Regina Douglas Park MLA, Nicole Sauer; Saskatoon City Councillor, Bev Dubois; and political research scientist, Erin Pillipow. (See attached document for bios.)

Attendees are encouraged to email questions in advance of the Courageous Conversation.

Please RSVP via email to adam.hawboldt@gov.sk.ca by Monday, March 2. Once you have registered, a Webex event link will be emailed to you.
