Smash and Grab Hits

Nordstrom Topanga

Police and paramedics responded to reports of a smash and grab robbery around 7 pm on Wednesday at Nordstrom at Westfield Topanga. Early reports state that a group of five individuals stormed the retail store, pepper spraying a security guard before fleeing with designer purses. Nordstrom employees reported the thieves went immediately to the Bottega Veneta boutique and smashed through multiple glass enclosures to obtain the items. Eyewitnesses report the thieves fled in an older model Ford Mustang with no plates. This robbery is just the latest of a string of smash and grabs at high end retailers throughout the state.

‘Tis the Season... Residents Prepping for Candy Cane Lane

Before the turkey was even in the oven, residents of Candy Cane Lane in Woodland Hills were prepping for the big event.

Candy Cane Lane is a valley tradition that goes back to 1950, when two residents - Mooie Harrington and June Ashton - on Lubao Avenue decided to "spruce up the neighborhood."

Now 71 years later, what started with just a couple neighbors putting up lights and asking neighbors to put candy cane decorations on their mailboxes, has grown to an annual event over four streets - all decorated and lit with holiday decorations. Themes range from Disney films to Santa and his elves and beyond. Mooie recalled in an early interview that every year they added something new, but there was "always Jesus, Mary and Joseph."

The tradition continues, and even during the pandemic many residents stoically put up their decorations. In 2020 the event was a smaller drive-through only, no pedestrian traffic event, but it continued nonetheless.

It's grown so much since 1950 that Lubao is now the official "Candy Cane Lane," while nearby Penfield is "Choir Lane," Oakdale is "Candelabra Lane" and Jumilla is "Avenue of the Bells."

Decorations go up for the next week and then the official kick-off is the first weekend of December.

The beautiful light and decor show is different each year, though some residents repeat traditional favorites that have been in the family for decades.

Candy Cane Lane can be accessed from Winnetka Avenue and Oxnard Street in Woodland Hills.

From 6 to 10 pm you can drive the streets of College Acres (transformed into Candy Cane Lane at Christmas). Visitors come from all over the valley, so traffic can get backed up - plan to have a leisurely drive of about an hour end to end.

Word on the StreetFrom Kathleen Sterling

This editorial ran ages ago but I was looking up information on Candy Cane Lane and loved the nostalgia of the piece - the older I get the more thankful I am for my "Ozzie and Harriet" childhood.

What started out as a straightforward interview with the originator of Candy Cane Lane back in the 50's turned into a wonderful nostalgic reminiscing session about growing up in the valley.

I initially went to meet with Mooie Harrington at the request of her daughter Teri. Mooie was one of two women who came up with the idea to decorate Lubao Street at Christmastime.

But as the interview went on with Mooie, Teri, and her childhood friends Molly Frederick (néé Ashen) and Skeeter Northcross, we quickly drifted into talked about growing up in an "Ozzie and Harriet" era of the valley.

I grew up in Woodland Hills, back when the Bob Hope property was open fields for miles, where we rode our bikes and built forts. The family behind us kept horses, and we stayed out on the street 'til it got dark. My mother always knew where we were - there were tons of kids on our street and we were either at Bobby's or Amy's house - or they were at ours.

Teri, Molly and Skeeter are a little older than I am, so they also remembered things like Jolly Rogers and the Big Slide at the miniature golf course, but they went farther back, and were soon laughing among themselves as they talked about the "Pow Wow" hamburger stand at Ventura and Penfield, owned by an American Indian couple who sold "the best burgers" right next to their gift shop.

Did you know that before Taft High was built, everyone at this end of the valley had to go to Reseda High? Taft in the 50's was a driving range of all things. There certainly was no Ralph's market - the closest market was J&H, on the lot that now boasts the Mexican restaurant Sol Y Luna.

The Ventura Freeway wasn't built in the 50's, so Lubao and Penfield all went straight up and ended on Ventura Blvd.

Skeeter was in the first graduating class at Crespi High School, and Teri rode her horse all over the west valley. "It was days of Little League and Pop Warner football," said Teri.

That I remember from my youth, as my brother played Pop Warner and my sister and I were both cheerleaders for the team. We used to walk to St. Mel School from our house on our very own - which no parent would allow today. The big news for us was the opening of Gemco, which was sort of a precursor to Target. You could buy food and groceries and toiletries and one or another of our friends was always working there as a cashier.

Birthdays were always at Farrell's, where you had to get the "zoo," and my dad was a hero on weekends taking us to Thrifty at Topanga and Ventura where ice cream was five cents a scoop,

I can remember the theatre next to Thrifty (where Petco is now) and the other theatres at El Camino Shopping Center and on Topanga and Victory.

We used to walk to Topanga Plaza - which was a big deal - and go ice skating at the rink, or run our hands through the "wall of beads" which was really just oil on a string. We bought clothes every fall at Sears, and wore itchy, wool uniforms to school every day.

We were happy and safe in the bubble that was suburban Woodland Hills. Teri, Molly and Skeeter lived in an even simpler, safer valley.

What I love is that the tradition that was born out of that time - neighbors getting together and building something wonderful like Candy Cane Lane - has lasted through time.

There is no more J&H, no more Pow Wow, and darn it, no more Big Slide. But there is the warmth and feeling and beauty of the season that every year comes to life on Candy Cane Lane.

We can all learn a lesson from that simpler, gentler time, and reach out to our neighbors this holiday season, perhaps not to build an event, but to build a stronger community.

Don't Get Scammed This Holiday

Authorities always note a rise in consumer fraud incidents during the holidays - the three scams listed here are among the most common:

Scam one: You receive a telephone call and are told you are eligible to receive a $100 gift card good at Target or another major retail store. To receive the gift card, you must call a toll-free number and provide a credit card number to pay for shipping and handling fees. Once your credit card information is received, you do not receive the $100 gift card and later find out that your credit card was illegally used on a spending spree.

Scam two: You receive a check from a "company" and are directed to cash it and wire and/or send a portion of the check amount back to the "company." With a short amount of time you learn from your financial institution that the check is not valid and you are responsible for the amount of the cashed check.

Scam three: Card skimming is an ongoing and serious problem. Card skimming is the act of using a skimmer to illegally collect data from the magnetic strip of a credit, debit or ATM card. This information, copied onto another blank card's magnetic strip is then used by an identity thief to make purchases or withdraw cash in the name of the actual account holder. Currently, we are seeing increased regional incidences of both financial institution and retail location skimming. 7-Eleven locations have been particularly hit hard in California and New York. Be wary of card swipes that appear altered or have added devices. Immediately report this to the management of the location in question. Guard entry of your PIN from observers or cameras.

Don't become a victim to credit card or check scams:

If you receive a check and are asked to cash it and wire or send a portion back, stop! If you are not expecting a check from anyone, do not cash one from a business or person that you don't know. When a check is issued, legitimate companies do not ask for people to send them a portion of the money back.

If you receive a call or mailer or email claiming that you have just won a contest and in order for you to receive the prize you must send money or provide credit card information or your social security number, be suspicious. Research the legitimacy of the prize company. Generally, there is no money exchanged to receive a prize. If you provide your personal information it can be used fraudulently

If you believe you have been contacted by a scammer or are a victim of a scam, contact your local police department and file a complaint with the National Fraud Information Center at fraud.org. Your information may help others and will be useful.

Celebrate "Giving Tuesday" on November 30

Giving Tuesday, a global movement of giving back, traditionally falls on the Tuesday following Thanksgiving as a response to the high commercialism that tends to quickly dominate the holiday season. But in a year where people are still struggling to get back on their feet, what does Giving Tuesday look like this year?

While organizations and individuals in the past have donated money or made large charitable contributions, the most important factor to remember is the day stresses the importance of doing good – in any manner you can. In the season of 2021, it may be wearing a mask or getting your vaccine. It may be supporting your local bookstore instead of an online retailer. Offering to grocery shop for someone who is unable to. Or it may simply be calling a loved one to check in. This year, perhaps more than ever, Giving Tuesday is needed to highlight that there is still positivity in the world.

Amidst a pandemic, there is hope.

If you have the financial means to pay it forward, charities and non-profits need your help this year more than ever. If that's not in your budget, offer to donate your time. After all, it costs nothing to share your kindness. While Giving Tuesday is highlighted on November 30 this year, there's no reason not to keep paying it forward. Giving Tuesday reminds us that people still have the power to look for the good in things and pay kindness forward.

Rotary Brings Thanksgiving to Those in Need

With the thoughts of most of us turning to the holidays and enjoying a wonderful Thanksgiving meal with family and friends, and as the Calabasas Rotary Club is unable to do their annual Thanksgiving Luncheon for Seniors for the second year in a row due to the pandemic, their hands were turned to another direction this year.

Rotary members came together to put food baskets together for those who have been so severely affected by the pandemic and unfortunate circumstances. Working with the Las Virgenes School District, baskets were delivered to over 20 families who will enjoy them on a day when we gather together to give thanks.

If you are interested in being a part of this giving organization, please reach out to them at info@calabasasrotary.org or call Membership Chair Bette Hall at (818) 564.6755.

Let Sagebrush Cater Your Holiday Party

Something has people looking forward to the winter holidays. Businesses, organizations and even individuals are already booking their holiday parties - and Sagebrush Cantina can accommodate you!

Accommodating up to 250 people, the cantina's private party tent is ready for the expected busy holiday season. Their most popular parties are holiday brunches, buffets, and cocktail parties with our taco bar - but the chocolate fountain and ice cream sundae bar is on everyone's list, too.

For over 40 years, the Sagebrush Cantina has been the community gathering spot for the holidays, hosting small office and family affairs to large corporate events. The staff believes that hosts should enjoy their own party with guests. They can assist in the pre-planning of events and be at the event to assure all is going better than expected.

In addition to holiday events, the spacious party tent is also popular for bridal events, reunions and bar and bat mitzvahs. Featuring a high, draped fabric canopy that cascades down to the walls, the tent has an elegant but neutral environment, which is perfect for transforming into any theme. It can host the utmost elegant affair or become a child's ultimate fantasy. The best feature is how everyone can enjoy the event together in one spacious area.

For smaller gatherings, the cantina's main dining and bar have also earned a reputation for creating a festive atmosphere, particularly during the holidays, and serves up both the cantina's traditional and catering menus. "Most people think we only know Tex-Mex but our chefs are amazing with the selection they can prepare for both sit-down and buffet parties," said Mario Romero, manager. "We also cater to office, home, or any location." For more information, call 222-6062.

Violins Rescued from the Holocaust Play at "Violins of Hope" at Soraya

The Violins of Hope, a collection of rescued and restored musical instruments from the Holocaust, were on their way to Los Angeles when their journey was interrupted by the COVID-19 crisis.

The Los Angeles Jewish Symphony, conducted by Dr. Noreen Green, was scheduled to perform with these historic instruments at The Soraya while the Violins of Hope were in residence in March 2020. Now, after almost a two-year delay, several of the Violins of Hope will make a triumphant return to The Soraya as Dr. Green conducts the Los Angeles Jewish Symphony on Sunday, December 12 at 7 pm.

"Suspending Violins of Hope activities in 2020 was heartbreaking for everyone who had come together around this extraordinary project - musicians, educators, philanthropists, elected officials, arts organizations, churches and synagogues, and the public at large," said Thor Steingraber, Executive and Artistic Director of The Soraya. "But now my heart is filled with joy as we finally welcome Dr. Green and the LAJS to perform their initial program, marking this as a celebration of perseverance and of music's power to transcend."

The program will feature violinist Lindsay Deutsch and cellist Barry Gold performing John Williams: Schindler's List Suite; Max Bruch: Kol Nidre; Ernest Bloch: Baal Shem: Three Pictures of Hassidic Life; and Sid Robinovitch: Suite for Klezmer Band and Orchestra.

Violins of Hope, an artistic and educational project, is composed of instruments that were owned by Jewish musicians before and during the Holocaust. Violins in the collection were played in the concentration camps and ghettos, providing a source of comfort for some and a means of survival for others. Above all, the instruments represented strength and optimism for the future during mankind's darkest hour. Wherever there was music, there was hope.

them in their Jerusalem shop to concert quality, and bring them to communities all over the world. Violins of Hope has traveled to Madrid, Maastricht, Monaco, Rome, Berlin, London, Bucharest, Dachau, Dresden, and Auschwitz. In the United States, the project has been presented in Charlotte, Cleveland, Houston, Jacksonville, Sarasota, Washington, D.C., Cincinnati, Nashville, Birmingham, Knoxville, Phoenix, Louisville, Fort Wayne, and San Francisco.

After the pandemic caused the cancellation, the Violins of Hope collection of instruments went into an almost self-imposed and secured hiding under The Soraya stage for seven months until they were safely returned to the Weinsteins in November 2020, after violinists Niv Ashkenazi, Lindsay Deutsch and Janice Mautner Markham performed on three of the instruments. This was recorded and made available via www.TheSoraya.org.

Although the instruments make beautiful museum pieces, at the heart of the Violins of Hope project is the Weinsteins' commitment to ensuring that the instruments are played again. While some of the musicians who originally owned the Violins of Hope may have been silenced by the Holocaust, their voices and spirits live on through performances on their instruments.

Founded in 1994 by Dr. Noreen Green, Artistic Director and Conductor, Los Angeles Jewish Symphony is an important resource for aspiring composers and musicians. As part of its mission, the Los Angeles Jewish Symphony is committed to building bridges of music and understanding within the diverse multi-ethnic communities of our great city.

Tickets for LA Jewish Symphony: Violins of Hope on Sunday, December 12 at 7 pm start at $41 and are available at www.thesoraya.org and by calling 818-677-3000. The Soraya is located at 18111 Nordhoff Street, Northridge, CA 91330.

Eating Disorders Surge as Virus Inflicts Stress

By Janey M. Rifkin

You may have noticed a rash of incoming e-mails touting such ads as "Lose Weight Fast." Whether or not they are promoting legitimate offers for weight loss plans, pills, or plain prophecy, they appear to have a captive audience. What is primarily obvious is the fact that the ongoing pandemic, with months of home sequestration and confinement, created treacherous conditions for nurturing eating disorders and generally poor health.

Now, a surge of new cases among adults and teenagers alike are seeking help from dieticians, weight-loss practitioners, reopened gyms, even in-patient programs across the country. "We are getting massive increases in calls, many hospitals are full, as patients seeking dietary help are finding it takes months to get an appointment," stated Jennifer Wildes, an associate professor at the University of Chicago Medicine. This is the situation across the country, according to an analysis published in the Epic Health Research Network Journal.

Calabasas Urges Residents to Get Involved in Proposed Redistricting

In November 2008, California voters passed the VOTERS FIRST Act, authorizing the creation of the Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission to draw new district lines, taking the job out of the hands of the California Legislature and transferring it to the citizens. In 2010, the VOTERS FIRST Act for Congress added the responsibility of drawing Congressional districts to the Commission.

The Calabasas City Council has been very proactive in making sure the five cities that make up the Las Virgenes-Malibu Council of Governments (Calabasas, Malibu, Hidden Hills, Agoura Hills and Westlake Village) remain together in the same legislative districts. These cities share common interests and when combined, equal roughly 100,000 residents. Furthermore, the COG cities are all served by the same County Sheriff's Department, the same County Fire Department, and each is located at the foot of the Santa Monica Mountains National Recreation Area. Most of the region is also contained within the same water district and school district. The five COG cities routinely work together to deal with the threat of wildfire and most of these cities are in designated Very High Fire Hazard Severity Zones. The Commission's proposed boundaries ignored the City's input and are a nightmarish mash-up of jagged lines that lump together communities with little or no commonalities or mutual interests.

Currently, the five COG cities are represented by three different

The Commission's proposed boundaries ignored the City's input and are a nightmarish mash-up of jagged lines that lump together communities with little or no commonalities or mutual interests.

members of Congress and three different state Assembly members. Calabasas itself (population 24,000) is divided into two separate Assembly districts. When cities share a common voice on so many issues, it is problematic to have so many different legislative representatives. The five COG cities are represented by the same State Senator and the same County Supervisor, and the City of Calabasas strongly urges the Redistricting Commission to follow this concept and put all five cities in the same Assembly and Congressional districts as well.

The City of Calabasas is urging residents of the area to speak up and get involved in the process. The Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission (LACCRC) and the California Citizens Redistricting Commission (CCRC) are looking for public input to help draw political boundaries, and so often hear only from the largest and most powerful interests.

"As the deadline looms for the final release of these legislative maps, we strongly encourage Calabasas residents and other local stakeholders to join our City Council in affirmative advocating for the Conejo Valley region to be included together within the same districts," said Calabasas Mayor James R. Bozajian. "For better or for worse, we will live with these boundaries for the next decade."

There are many ways for residents to make their voices heard – online or in person.

Home Depot Lends a Hand to Local Veterans

Home Depot jumped in to help the local American Legion Post #826 at Fallbrook and Ventura.

Hall Manager Duane "Bucky" Buckley had applied for a Community Impact Grant to do some construction work at the Post, which has been helping valley veterans since 1948.

Once a stable and make-up room on the nearby Warner Bros. Studio lot in Warner Center, the Post building was donated for use as the Post meeting hall by Harry Warner, and loaded and moved on a flatbed truck down Ventura Blvd. to its present sight at 5320 Fallbrook in 1951.

Needless to say, 70 years later it needs some work! The Home Depot crew, led by Home District Manager John Cruz, graded the lot and installed new pavers.

The effort came from The Home Depot Foundation, which works to improve the homes of U.S. veterans, support communities impacted by natural disasters and train skilled tradespeople to fill the labor gap. The Foundation has pledged to invest $500 million in veteran causes by 2025 through their efforts with national nonprofit partners, Team Depot and the Veteran Housing Grants program, which awards grants to nonprofit organizations for the construction or rehabilitation of permanent supportive housing for veterans.

"They were a great crew and helped us tremendously," said Bucky. "A huge thank you to Home Depot!"

Stress Eating

Some patients resort to excessive eating as a coping mechanism. Others restrict their diets to the point of anorexia. Since January, more than 9,000 people from every state and 32 countries have attended support groups sponsored by The Alliance for Eating Disorders Awareness. "Like nothing we've seen before," commented Johanna Kandel, chief executive.

Bulimia is another eating disorder, that of eating large amounts of food followed by self-induced vomiting. Physicians who deal with the various extremes of diet and weight control urge parents to talk to their kids. For parents who become aware of abnormal behavior regarding bulimia, signs of recognition can include frequent use of laxatives and immediate trips to the bathroom after meals.

"Talk to your kids, likewise talk to your patients," advice to families as well as doctors in practice, by Dr. Dave Little, a prominent researcher in the field. "The sooner you respond, the better."

"3-4-202 PENALTIES FOR WASTEFUL WATER USE AND EXCEEDANCES DURING WATER SHORTAGE EMERGENCIES

(a) No customer shall knowingly permit waste or leaks of water. Where water is wastefully or negligently used on the customer's premises, the District may discontinue the service, if such conditions are not corrected within five days after the General Manager gives the customer written notice.

(b) A water budget shall be established for each customer of the District, and customers shall be notified of the basis for calculating their water budgets. Water use exceeding a customer's water budget by a prescribed amount is a waste of water, a violation of the District's rules and regulations, and shall be subject to escalating administrative penalties.

(c) Except during implementation of Stage 3 or Stage 4 of the Water Shortage Contingency Plan, the following penalties shall apply for water use exceeding 200% (2.0 times) a property's water budget:

(1) For the first penalty, the customer shall receive a written warning from the District including the amount of the exceedance, the penalty that would have been levied absent the provision of a warning and notice that further exceedances will result in monetary penalties as described herein.

(2) For the second penalty, the amount shall be as set forth in set forth in Section 7-1.112(a)(1) of this Code. The customer shall also receive a written warning from the District showing the amount of the penalty that will be levied on the same quantity of water in the event of a third exceedance.

(3) For the third, and for each subsequent penalty that a customer receives for a property, the amount shall be as set forth in set forth in Section 7-1.112(a)(2) of this Code.

(d) During implementation of Stage 3 or Stage 4 of the Water Shortage Contingency Plan, customers may receive reduced water budgets with the application of a drought factor in accordance with Section 4-4.103(b) of this Code and are subject to penalties and enforcement action for exceeding their budgets by a prescribed amount. During implementation of Stage 3 of the Water Shortage Contingency Plan, an exceedance is any unit of water over 150% (1.5 times) a customer's water budget. During implementation of Stage 4 of the Water Shortage Contingency Plan, an exceedance is any unit of water more than 100% (1.0 times) a customer's water budget.

(1) For the first penalty, the customer shall receive a written warning from the District including the amount of the exceedance, the penalty that would have been levied absent the provision of a warning and notice that further exceedances will result in monetary penalties as described herein.

(2) For the second penalty, the amount shall be as set forth in Section 7-1.112(b)(1) of this Code. The customer shall also receive a written warning from the District showing the amount of the penalty that will be levied on the same quantity of water AND that they may be subject to the installation of a flow restriction device on their water service in the event of a third exceedance.

(3) For the third penalty, the amount shall be as set forth in Section 7-1.112(b)(2) of this Code AND be subject to the installation of a flow restriction device on their water service, at the discretion of the General Manager or designee. The customer shall also receive a written warning from the District showing the amount of the penalty that will be levied on the same quantity of water in the event of a fourth exceedance.

(4) For the fourth penalty, the amount shall be as set forth in Section 7-1.112(b)(3) of this Code AND be subject to the installation of a flow restriction device on their water service, at the discretion of the General Manager or designee. The customer shall also receive a written warning from the District showing the amount of the penalty that will be levied on the same quantity of water in the event of a fifth exceedance.

(5) For the fifth penalty, the amount shall be as set forth in Section 7-1.112(b)(4) of this Code AND be subject to the installation of a flow restriction device on their water service, at the discretion of the General Manager or designee. The customer shall also be informed that the same penalty will be levied on each unit of water that is in exceedance for future billing periods that occur while Stage 3 or Stage 4, whichever the case, of the Water Shortage Contingency Plan remains in effect.

(e) A flow restriction device, if installed during implementation of Stage 3 or Stage 4 of the Water Shortage Contingency Plan, will remain installed for no less than 14 calendar days and up to 30 calendar days the first time it is installed, 90 calendar days the second time it is installed, and 180 calendar days the third and subsequent times that it is installed. Noticing/door tag, flow restriction device installation and removal fees shall apply.

(f) The count for exceedances shall "reset" to zero if the District escalates implementation of the Water Shortage Contingency Plan from Stage 3 to Stage 4, upon de-escalation of the Water Shortage Contingency Plan from any higher Stage to a lower Stage, or upon deactivation of the Water Shortage Contingency Plan.

(g) Penalties shall be collected on the customer's water bill. Any penalties shall be the responsibility of the customer of record for the property where the violation occurred and shall be paid in addition to the fees the District imposes for the cost of water service to the property. Non-payment of penalties imposed pursuant to this section shall be subject to the same remedies as available to the District for the non-payment of fees for water service. The receipt of a water bill with any applicable penalties shall serve as notice of violation.

(h) Penalties, including the written warning, may be appealed. A customer who wishes to appeal the imposition of a penalty shall: (1) pay all amounts stated on the bill except for the disputed penalties; and (2) submit a completed Appeal Request Form to the District within 15 calendar days of the date of the appellant's water bill for the billing cycle in which the penalty was imposed.

(i) An appeal will be granted if the District finds that competent evidence supports a reasonable conclusion that:

(1) the excessive water use was the result of a malfunction of the District's water system or a billing error by the District;

(2) the water was needed for health or safety reasons; or

(3) a leak occurred on the property during the subject billing cycle.

(j) The District will respond to appeals within 30 calendar days of receipt. The District may require additional documentation prior to making a decision on an appeal. In the event an appeal is denied, the appellant shall pay the District within 10 days of denial of the appeal."
