Grief: The Elephant in the Room

Join us for an evening of meaningful stories shared with kindness and wisdom by renowned grief specialist, Eugene Dufour.

Eugene is a clinically trained therapist and international speaker with vast knowledge and experience in life, loss, and resiliency. With more than three decades of experience in hospice palliative care, bereavement, trauma, and family therapy, he brings extraordinary depth and compassion to his work with individuals, families, and caregivers.

“I approach all I am called to do from a place of being called. A place I enter with the utmost compassion, dignity, humility and respect for the sacredness of the human spirit.”

-Eugene Dufour
