

CREATIVE COMMUNITY LIVING OPTIONS

An Educational Series

We have a variety of virtual trainings in the upcoming months! To attend, please join the following Zoom meeting at the time each session begins.

Meeting ID: 928 889 4758

MAY
4-6

The Foundation for a Future for your Adult Son or Daughter

Presented by: Shaeila Stasko and Tom Carasiti, Vision for Equality

May 4- 6pm – 8pm Limited to 10 participants

May 6- 6pm – 8pm Limited to 10 participants

Write and detail an individual succession plan for your son or daughter that will engage you to create a life plan. We will encourage you to look at your communities, as well as families to provide the oversight, support and love for your loved one when you are no longer here.

MAY 13

ID/A Waiver Overview

Presented by: Francine Hogan and Diana Morris Smaglik, Vision for Equality

10am – 12pm

Break

1pm – 3pm

Join us for an overview of the Intellectual Disability/Autism waiver system. We will cover registering, eligibility, enrollment, PUNS, the ISP, waiver services, and Fair Hearings.

MAY 21

Dual Diagnosis; A Training for Supporters and Self-Advocates

Presented by: Cheryl Parker M. Ed, Western Region Director for Person Driven Clinical Solutions, LLC.

10am – 12pm

Self-advocates and their supporters will learn about the trauma that maybe underlying these high rates of co-occurring mental illness, get an overview of these diagnoses, and learn strategies for self-care and how to support someone who experiences co-occurring mental illness.

MAY 27

Healing Trauma through Everyday Life, an Exploration of the Art and Science of Direct Support

Presented by: Beth I Barol PhD, LSW, BCB, NADD-CC

10am – 12pm

We will look at trauma through the lens of the brain, body, and the mind, and examine an array of activities, lifestyle interventions, and therapies that can make a significant difference. Direct Support Professionals, caregivers, and the person(s) they support would benefit from attending this session.

JUNE
1

The Nuts & Bolts of Participant Directed Services & Supports

Presented by: Jamie Rae Leonetti, Institute on Disabilities at Temple University and Marian Frattarola-Saulino, Values into Action

1pm – 4pm

Learning about the Participant Directed Services model is vital to helping an individual live a self-determined life in their community. Join us for a deep dive into Participant Directed Services and hear from a panel of experts.

JUNE
8

Creating Your Individual Support Plan (ISP)

Presented by: Francine Hogan and Diana Morris Smaglik, Vision for Equality

6:30pm – 8:30pm

People with disabilities and their family need to understand the purpose of the ISP and how to create a meaningful plan that fulfills their loved one's life. Join us to learn about the ISP process, outcomes, and approval process.