

Barracks to Business: Translating Military Skills into Career Success

As a veteran, you have valuable skills and experience – but you may not know exactly how to translate them to the civilian workplace.

We're here to help.

Our Barracks to Business Workshop helps you effectively communicate the in-demand skills you've developed during your service -- which include leadership, discipline, flexibility, organization and change management -- to prospective employers. We'll work with you to craft a winning resume and interview like a pro. Let's work together to make your transition from the military to the civilian workforce a rewarding one.

Date: Wednesday, November 16th, 2016

Time: 1:00PM-4:00PM

Location: Stony Brook University, Student Activities Center (SAC) Room#304

Directions: Recommend using Google Maps: “Stony Brook, Student Activity Center” or Click here

Or for GPS use, input: 100 Nicolls Road Stony Brook, NY

Note that this may lead you to the Medical Center, while the SAC is located on West Campus. Please use the entrances on the west side of Nicolls Road.*

Parking: Please park in the Administration Parking Garage and walk to the SAC.
<http://career.stonybrook.edu/about-us/directions/walking-directions>

Speaker: Anthony Silvera, Northwell Health Veteran Program Specialist

Contact: Urszula Zalewski, Assistant Director of Experiential Programs, 631-632-6810

All Veterans or those who are currently serving in the Armed Forces interested in careers at Northwell Health are encouraged to attend.

This seminar is free but you must preregister to attend.

Go to <http://barracks-to-business-november.ttcportals.com>

