Meet the healthcare providers in Eastern Long Island and their partner, Katz Institute for Women's Health. Together they provide a complete health care connection focused on the continuum of care over woman's lifespan. This collaborative approach gives opportunity for defining the standards of excellence in patient-centered women's health care.

A panel of doctors from Huntington Hospital, Southside Hospital, Mather Hospital and the Peconic Medical Center will share their expertise in the areas of cardiology, orthopedics, obstetrics & gynecology and urogynecology.
