

American Diabetes Association Recognized Diabetes Self-Management Education Program

2019

Jan 24 Class #1 Introduction to Diabetes and Complications

Location: Stony Brook Hospital lobby conference room 1

Time: 9:30am - 11:30am

What is diabetes?

What are the different types of diabetes?

Which organs are involved in regulation of blood sugar?

The latest research in diabetes

What are the acute and chronic complications of uncontrolled diabetes?

Blood pressure, cholesterol, foot care, eye care, dental care

Hypoglycemia and hyperglycemia

DKA and HHS

Jan 31 Class #2 Monitoring, Medications and Problem-Solving

Location: Stony Brook Hospital lobby conference room 1

Time: 9:30am – 11:30am

How to test blood sugar

Target blood sugars

Keeping a log

Pattern management – what do I do with my results?

Oral and injectable medications

Injection techniques and sharp disposal

Feb 7 Class #3 Physical Activity and Healthy Eating

Location: Stony Brook Hospital lobby conference room 2

Time: 9:30am – 12:30pm

What should I be eating?

How to balance meals

Portion control

Weight loss

Types of activity

Aerobic and anaerobic exercise

ADA guidelines for activity and diabetes

Feb 14 Class #4 Healthy Coping and Reaching Goals

Location: Stony Brook Hospital lobby conference room 1

Time: 9:30am – 11:30am

How to deal with the stress of having diabetes

Overcoming barriers to diabetes self-management

Setting SMART goals

Conquering barriers

Keeping follow-up appointments

Support

 A referral from your provider is required

All participants must schedule a 1:1 assessment with Patty Skala, RN, CDE prior to enrolling in class. To schedule an appointment please call 444-0580 and to obtain more information please call Patty Skala at 444-9954. The assessment appointment is located at the Risk Reduction Clinic, 26 Research Way, E. Setauket, NY 11733.