Thursday 8:00 AM	Registration & Breakfast	General Session Area (GSA)
Seminar 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM	Seminar: “Hack your company before the Hackers do! 20 ways YOU can evaluate cybersecurity risk in your organization.” Learn about the latest cybersecurity events and trends, how to evaluate your company’s risk and what you can do about it! Gain an understanding of the latest ransomware, cybersecurity, phishing, vulnerabilities, risk assessments, and best practices. This seminar will also focus on user training, IT infrastructure, data and PII safety. Speaker: Helder Machado, CEO / CISO Machado Consulting 3.0 CEUs	GSA
Thursday 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM	Buffet Luncheon	GSA
Seminar 1:00 PM – 2:30 PM	Seminar: “Dementia Communication Strategies: Using Art and Images to Enrich Conversation” Get ready to immerse yourself in color and art! This interactive workshop will include a facilitator-guided discussion and opportunity to “practice the skill” of Visual Thinking Strategies (VTS), using images to provide a non-judgmental way to communicate with persons living with dementia, an Art History “Storytelling with Objects” experience, and colorful artmaking (that is easy to replicate on a budget!). Staff who have a basic understanding of how to use art images to communicate with residents increase the joy in any environment. Speaker: Siobhan McDonald, B.F.A., M.Ed. is certified in Visual Thinking Strategies, a Certified Dementia Practitioner (CDP), and a Certified Montessori Dementia Practitioner (CMDP). Siobhan is a Dementia Friend and a Dementia Friends Champion. She was a member of the Education Advisory Board at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston for four years (2013-2017). Siobhan is the author of Hilda's Story: New Bedford, Massachusetts an interactive read-aloud designed for entertainment, understanding, comfort, and connection. 1.5 CEUs	GSA
Seminar 2:45 PM – 4:15 PM	Seminar: “Navigating Change... Together” A highly interactive 90-minute seminar designed to help Healthcare Administrators take their QAPI programs, facility culture, and performance to new heights. Participants will be taken on a journey of self-reflection, classroom style learning, dialogue and collaboration with peers, and hands on practical application guided by expert facilitators. Topics include understanding the “recipe” for sustainable change, learning and combining best practices for project management, change management, and transition management. The speaker will address behaviors that strengthen the change “muscles” of an organization, developing and leveraging a simple communications plan, and using “storytelling” as a time-tested means to convey key messages to staff. Speaker: Robert Bousquet, Owner-Principal Consultant Climb LLC - nearly 20 years of experience leading business improvement initiatives, programs, and company-wide transformation efforts within multiple Fortune 100 companies. Bob holds a B.B.A. in Finance from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst. 1.5 CEUs	GSA
Thursday 4:15 PM	The New England Alliance-District One of ACHCA Meeting	GSA
Thursday 5:00 PM	Cocktail Reception	Saltwater Lounge
Friday 8:00 AM	Registration & Breakfast	GSA
Seminar 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM	Seminar: “Stress, Success, & Leadership” This program will address success strategies for stressed out executives. Chronic stress is a national epidemic obstructing both our mental and physical health. This enemy is toxic to our vital organs while damaging neural pathways that impair good judgment. The speaker will discuss beneficial strategies for prosperous stress management, compelling stories that will encourage you to fulfill your potential in leading others, and how you can become an influential model for well-being and resilience in your community and career. Speaker: Don Wood, Owner of Don Wood Speaks - speaker, coach, and writer. 3.0 CEUs	GSA
