

FROM THE PAGE TO THE STAGE

SENSORY FRIENDLY PERFORMANCE

WHEN: FEBRUARY 22ND 5:00PM-6:00PM | TICKETS: $5 FOR ADULTS, CHILDREN ARE FREE

WHERE: COLORADO BALLET BLACK BOX THEATER - 1075 SANTA FE DRIVE, DENVER, CO

Colorado Ballet Studio Company professional dancers will perform excerpts from ballets based on folk tales and literary classics while moving through the timeline of ballet. The audience will watch as stories and history come to life through the world of ballet! The show will feature brief excerpts from Colorado Ballet's 2019-2020 productions: Don Quixote, The Nutcracker and Peter Pan.

THEATER ADAPTATIONS INCLUDE:

Lower sound levels

Dimmed house lighting

Relaxed house rules allowing patrons to speak, stand up and walk around

Sensory break space in the lobby

Pre-visit social story

PURCHASE TICKETS AT COLOROBALLET.ORG/SFP

Email Education Accessibility Coordinator, Bridget Heddens at bridget.heddens@coloradoballet.org with any questions.

Sponsored by:

Developmental Pathways
Dedicated to Individuals with Disabilities

 AUTISM SOCIETY
Colorado

SENSORY FRIENDLY PERFORMANCE