Pentecost Offering to Benefit UNRWA

PCUSA has changed its special offerings this year and eliminated the Pentecost offering. MSM believes that in this time of war and devastation, funds are needed more than ever to address the urgent needs created by the tragic situation in the Middle East. MSM has identified UNRWA as an agency that can effectively deliver funds to address the current critical needs. So this year, we will still have a Pentecost offering, and 100% of the proceeds will go to UNRWA to support its relief work in Palestine, including Gaza and the West Bank.

You can see the work of UNRWA here <https://www.unrwa.org/>

The Racial Justice Ministry Announces:

Spring Congregational Book Read May 31 and June 7

There's still time to read Cherished Belonging (see cover above) by Gregory Boyle, a Jesuit priest and founder of Homeboy Industries in Los Angeles, California. His most recent book describes the belief in compassion, redemption, and healing that infuses the community that Homeboy Industries creates for gang members. This book includes short vignettes and can be read in small chunks.

You will find nuggets that apply to your life and the life of our congregation. Some examples:

- God is in the loving
- We are all unshakably good
- God IS inclusion

Read with us and come to book discussions after the services on Sunday, May 31, and June 7. Bring a passage that speaks to you or hear from others.

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

Please note the following memorial services that will be held in the sanctuary at Trinity Presbyterian Church:

Service for Paul Sullivan held on Friday, June 12, at 11:00 a.m.

Service for Doug Hardt held on Saturday, June 13, at 11:00 a.m.

JOIN A TEAM

Welcome Team

Duties include Greeting people, handing out bulletins, and collecting the offering. You don't have to do it every Sunday. If you are familiar with the process, feel free to use the sign-up in the email or on the website. If you'd like to know more, contact Grace Montgomery.

Communion Table Setters

Communion is celebrated on the first Sunday of the month, and you can be part of the team that gets the juice and bread ready for worship. Contact Grace Montgomery.

Back-up Coffee Team

Sometimes the Montgomerys can't make the coffee on a Sunday morning, could you do it? It isn't as difficult as it looks. Training is provided. Contact Grace Montgomery.

Liturgist Team

Could you read scripture? Say a prayer? Tell the people to greet one another? If so, contact Pastor Judith.

Slide Runner

Some training is involved, but mostly it is pressing a button at the right time. If you know what you are doing, use the signup in the email or on the website. If you'd like to know more, contact Grace Montgomery.

Youth Team

This team will work with Keeley to help support and nurture our youth. The team will be about more than just sharing ideas; it will be about coming alongside Keeley and the youth to help create a fun, safe environment for them to grow spiritually. Contact Keeley.

Adult Education

This team will meet a couple of times a year to dream and plan education opportunities for the adults at Trinity. If you have some good ideas or are willing to bounce ideas around. Contact Ben Stewart.

Children's Ministry

This team is about creating a fun, safe environment for children to discover God, faith, and what it means to be the church. It will dream about Sunday School, VBS, how to support parents, and more. Contact Ben Stewart.

Ways to Serve in our Community

Serving with S.O.M.E.

Trinity has been preparing breakfast for over 30+ years on the 3rd Monday of the month for SOME (So Others May Eat) in DC. They have recently completed a renovation of the kitchen, dining room, and building at 71 O Street NW.

Breakfast preparation consists of 3-4 people arriving at 6:00 a.m. (finishing by 7:30 a.m.) and cooking eggs, sausages, grits, and other duties as needed. It's great way to start the morning and support people in need. Visit the Sign Up Genius link to volunteer - for more information, contact Todd Parker at 703-237-7699.
