

He has shown you, O mortal, what is good.
And what does the Lord require of you?
To act justly and to love mercy and to walk
humbly with your God

Fourth Sunday After Epiphany

Welcome.

We are glad that you are here.

As an inclusive community of faith, we welcome you just as you are. We celebrate that God's love and grace extends to all, and affirm that each person has sacred worth.

So take a moment.

Breathe.

Announcements

(Please take this opportunity to check in using the red Friendship Pad.)

Call to Worship

What does the Lord require of you,
but to do justice,
love kindness,
and walk humbly with God?

Hymn #70

What Does the Lord Require of You

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

God, we have neglected to seek your presence.
We haven't spoken truth with love.
Our words and deeds, intentional and not, have caused pain.
Forgive us with your great mercy
that we might recognize your constant presence, stand in the goodness of Christ,
and walk in the light of his love. Amen.

Silent Confession

Words of Assurance and Faith

Friends, rejoice in the good news of the gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

All Who Hunger Gather Gladly

Sacrament of Holy Communion

Invitation to the Table

Christ's table is wide, and his welcome is for all.

This is not a Presbyterian Table. This is not Trinity Church's Table.

This is the Lord's table, and all who feel called to respond to Christ's invitation, are welcome.

There is a place for you at this table, whether you have ever communed with Trinity before, and wherever you are on your faith journey.

You are welcome, period.

Life of the Church, Joys and Concerns

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Holy One be with you

And also with you

Open your hearts to the One who is Love

We open our hearts to you, O God

Let us give thanks to God who takes risks for love

For the courage of the Holy that lives in us, we give thanks

Throughout history, O God, we have struggled to remember who we are.

When forces of evil work to shape our understanding of you, ourselves, and one another, we get lost. We hide parts of ourselves.

We keep the things that make us vulnerable buried deep.
We cling to security and safety.
We turn from meaningful connection with one another.
We take cover under the patterns of our culture.

But you have created us for so much more.
In Jesus we saw a life lived in all its potential.
Life that is abundant, life that is collective, life that is tender and full.
But we saw, also, in him, what can happen to a life when power and norms are exchanged for truth, collective justice, and integrity.
And so we wonder.
If we live true to our authentic selves, will we be condemned?
In proclaiming truths that confront unjust power, do we stand a chance of survival?
How will it go for us, if we are willing to risk everything for love?
You have never promised us safety, but you have shown us what is possible.
The Spirit brings new life even to places of death.

Jesus, knowing the dangers ahead, kept proclaiming his truth.
There was nothing worth his silence, not even his life.
And so he turned to community for companionship in the struggle.
On the night of his arrest, he gathered around table with his companions.
He took bread, blessed it, broke it, gave it to his disciples and said,
"This is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me."
He did the same with the cup after the supper, saying,
"This cup that is poured out is the new covenant."

In Jesus, God came out to the world, challenging systems and norms.
And though great violence was done and unfathomable loss was felt,
Love presses on still today, transforming life after life.

And so we pray, pour out your Spirit on this bread and this cup.
Through these gifts, fill our hearts with courage to live boldly for one another, proclaiming the truths that set us free.
Blessed be this meal of hope. Amen.

In solidarity with Christ,
Let us pray the prayer he taught us to pray:

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Words of Institution

The Kin-dom Feast is Shared

Prayer After the Supper

God, we give you thanks for the invitation to your Table.
No matter who we are, no matter our struggles or regrets, we are always welcomed.
Like all the gifts you give us, may we never be content in keeping them to ourselves.
May this meal compel us to invite others – especially those who are turned away from other tables, for whatever reason -
to this, Christ's table, overflowing with love and blessing. Amen.

Doxology Hymn #606

Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow

Prayerful Setting of Intentions

(Please take this moment of silence to set an intention for the week ahead. Your intention might be a response to today's worship, or it may be something that has been on your heart – a desire for change, an inner nudging, a move toward deeper discipleship. Write your intention down or note it on your phone and take it with you as you go.)

Prayer for the Coming Week

God, through Christ you rescued us.
We were captive to false perspectives and you led us out, into your ultimate truth.
Open our eyes to see you present in all circumstances, guide us by the wisdom of the cross, and show us how to embody your justice, love and blessedness. Amen.

What Does the Lord Require of You (70)

What does the Lord require of you?
What does the Lord require of you?
Justice, kindness,
walk humbly with your God.
To seek justice and love kindness and walk humbly with your God.

Glory Be to the Father (581)

Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.
Amen, amen.

All Who Hunger Gather Gladly (509)

1 All who hunger, gather gladly;
holy manna is our bread.
Come from wilderness and wandering.
Here, in truth, we will be fed.
You that yearn for days of fullness,
all around us is our food.
Taste and see the grace eternal.
Taste and see that God is good.
2 All who hunger, never strangers,
seeker, be a welcome guest.
Come from restlessness and roaming.
Here, in joy, we keep the feast.
We that once were lost and scattered in communion's love have stood.
Taste and see the grace eternal.
Taste and see that God is good.
3 All who hunger, sing together;
Jesus Christ is living bread.

Come from loneliness and longing.
Here, in peace, we have been led.
Blest are those who from this table
live their days in gratitude.
Taste and see the grace eternal.
Taste and see that God is good.

Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow (606)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise *him, all creatures here below;
praise *him above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
*Or "God"

Be Thou My Vision (450)

1 Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
naught be all else to me, save that thou art;
thou my best thought, by day or by night,
waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.
2 Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true
Word;
I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord;
thou my soul's shelter, and thou my high tower;
raise thou me heavenward, O Power of my power.
3 Riches I heed not, nor vain, empty praise;
thou, mine inheritance, now and always;
thou and thou only, first in my heart,
High King of Heaven, my treasure thou art.
4 High King of Heaven, my victory won,
may I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

Micah 6:8

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

He has told you, O mortal, what is good:
and what does the LORD require of you?
to do justice, and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God?

Matthew 5:1-12

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them saying:
“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

Intentional Through the Week at Home and in Small Groups
Where am I being called to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly?

My intention for this week is:

Morning Prayer for the Week

Blessed God,
Open my eyes to see you today,
a brilliant light, present in every circumstance.
May I be a conduit for your holy spirit.
Just as your light shines into the hidden places of my heart, may it shine through me into the darkened corners of the world. Amen.

Evening Prayer for the Week

Loving God, your love and light are just as present in the night as in the day.
Be a comfort to those who are afraid or alone.
As sleep comes, may I be one with you in your realm of uncreated light, fully open to your peace and love. Amen.

Readings for the Week Matthew 5:1-12 (Read daily, and look for opportunities to discuss or contemplate these words)

Questions for Reflection

1. How does seeing Jesus as fully present in your daily circumstances change things? Does an intentional acknowledgement of Jesus change your daily behaviors or reactions? How so?
2. Which of the Beatitudes do you find hardest to swallow? Which one feels most poignant and necessary for today?
3. Which of the Beatitudes is nudging you toward doing justice, loving mercy and walking humbly this week?

Intentional in Community

Consider using these reflection questions with a small group or prayer partner.

Share your intentions and/or your experience of living them out with someone else in the Trinity community.

Our Thoughts and Prayers

Please pray for the following friends and families of Trinity

Joys:

- + Anna Marie Yates, mother of Alice Yates, has been released from the hospital and is resting at home. Please pray for her comfort, and wisdom for the family to know how to best care for her.

A call out to join others in exercising your voice.....

The Racial Justice Ministry invites Trinity members to join the “Trinity in Action Signal Group” at Signal Messenger Group. You are encouraged to use this platform to learn how others in our congregation are advocating and educating for change in our community. If you are showing up at an event, participating in a letter writing campaign, or otherwise speaking out for justice, post in this group and seek support from other Trinity folks. The only rule is that you may only post if you are actually participating.

Classes and Spiritual Formation Opportunities

Religion in the American Revolution (new class)

Our nation begins its observance of the 250th anniversary of the War for Independence this year. Three (3) class sessions this February will look at the complex role Christian faith and the various church traditions played in the struggle, along with the impact of the Revolution on religious life in the New Republic. This class is led by Charles Hambrick-Stowe and meets in the Lewis Room. (bio on web)

- February 1: How religious experience set the stage for the Revolutions of 1640, 1688/89, and the Great Awakening.

Meditation Time

A time of meditation is provided in the Meditation Room and is led by Sue Bodner.

New Members Class

If you are interested in becoming a member of Trinity Presbyterian or would like more information about what membership entails, join Pastor Judith and Jim Dykstra in the Kinzer Room.

- February 1: How do You Spell Presbyterian?

Just Coffee

Will be provided in the Knox Room between the Sunday services. Come enjoy the fellowship.

Young Adults

Will meet today, February 1st at 12:30 p.m. in the Knox Room.

Youth and Children's Corner

ATTENTION: Sign up for the Youth Mission Trip TODAY!

Please go to the following link to sign up:

<https://tpcarlington.churchtrac.com/connect?ei=2Q3LJXB>

Also, Trinity Adults! We need chaperones to come on the mission trip as well! If you have the skillset of building, cooking, driving around teens, and repeating a schedule many times, please consider signing up to volunteer!

If you have any questions, please reach out to Keeley!

Ways to Serve in the Community and in the Church

This February, a small group of Trinity members will be going to Matanzas, Cuba, for an exploratory mission trip to discern if our church would like to support a church community in Cuba.

We're asking for specific donations to bring to the people of Cuba, which are listed below. Please bring donations to Keeley's office at Trinity. If you have any questions, please reach out to Keeley Harris at youth@trinityarlington.org.

Things specifically requested:

<https://a.co/d/fCULSkG>

<https://a.co/d/3gwVZhe>

Dish towels (5 or 6 packs of 2 or 3)

Cloth napkins (24)

Single bed sheet sets (6 to 8?)
Blankets/duvets (space-wise, maybe just 2 or 3)
Multivitamins

Things I think we can also bring (can be expanded):

Acetaminophen
Ibuprofen

Serving with S.O.M.E.

Trinity has been preparing breakfast for over 30+ years on the 3rd Monday of the month for SOME (So Others May Eat) in DC at 71 O Street NW and TPC is thrilled to continue this local mission support.

Breakfast preparation consists of 3-4 people arriving at 6:00 a.m. (finishing by 7:30 a.m.) and cooking eggs, sausages, grits, and other duties as needed. It's a great way to start the morning and support people in need. Visit the Sign Up Genius link to volunteer – for more information, contact Todd Parker (703-237-7699).
