

THE GEORGETOWN PROJECT

NEST EMPOWERMENT CENTER

(*Nurturing*Empowerment*Supporting for *Tomorrow)

A 10-year program of The Georgetown Project providing a safe haven after school for Georgetown ISD teens who are homeless, at-risk or in need of resources such as evening meals, a quiet place for homework, school supplies, homework help, job readiness training, connection to community resources, and other supportive, therapeutic, and enrichment services provided in a positive environment with caring adults.

We offer community service opportunities weekly during the calendar school year to GISD high school students. For more information contact:
