THINK MUTUAL BANK NAMES NEW TWIN CITIES BUSINESS BANKING TEAM

Think Mutual Bank is building a new Business Banking team that will serve business customers throughout Minneapolis/St Paul from its offices in Apple Valley, Eagan, Edina and St. Paul.

Kirk Muhlenbruck has been named Vice President of Business Banking – Twin Cities. Drawing on more than 28 years of banking experience, Muhlenbruck will oversee the growth and development of Think's Business Banking presence in the market. Prior to this new role, Muhlenbruck was the bank's Vice President of Business Development in Minneapolis/St Paul.

The bank's Business Advisors will focus on serving the financial needs of the bank's business customers. Sonya Busch is the new Business Advisor at the bank's Apple Valley branch located at 15751 Emperor Avenue. Busch has 16 years of banking experience and has been the Apple Valley branch manager since its opening in 2011.

Joe Rutter is the new Business Advisor at the bank's Eagan branch located at 4245 Johnny Cake Ridge Road. Rutter has 12 years of banking experience, six of those with Think. Prior to this role, Rutter was branch manager of the bank's Edina branch before being named the Business Advisor in Edina.

Think Mutual Bank is a community bank headquartered in Rochester, Minnesota, with ten full-service offices in Rochester, Apple Valley, Eagan, Edina, and St. Paul. Think focuses on consumers and small businesses, providing a full array of banking, mortgage, insurance, and financial planning services.
