Volunteer Disaster Trainings

About

Your community needs you in a time of disaster! Are you interested in serving the community before or after a disaster? Catholic Charities Cape Fear office is hosting a mini training series during the month of July.

Opportunities

Individual Disaster Preparedness

In this one hour training, you will learn how to go over a household disaster preparedness plan. Volunteers who complete this session would be utilized 1-5 days before a pending hurricane to increase community preparedness and resiliency.

Monday, July 12 - 9:30 a.m.

Disaster Assessments

In this one hour training, you will learn how to conduct a disaster assessment with individual households after a disaster to help us better understand individual household impact so that we can understand needs.

Monday, July 19 - 9:30 a.m.

Point of Distribution

In this one hour training you will learn about operating a point of distribution. A point of distribution is a centralized location where community members can access life sustaining supplies after a disaster. This course is intended to provide fundamental information about disaster operations and how to set up a successful POD.

Monday, July 26 - 9:30 a.m.
