Please double-check your application and be sure all necessary elements are completed and that all documentation is submitted in one package and that nothing is stapled. Include all application pages in the correct order.*

Scholarship Eligibility: Each scholarship applicant must qualify in one of the following categories:

1. A qualified resident of an AHMA East Texas member community.

All members of the AHMA East Texas Scholarship Committee individually review and score all applications based on the criteria discussed below. Points are assigned for each area and totaled for each applicant. Applicants are then preliminarily ranked by numerical score. The Scholarship Committee, as a group, makes the final selections based on discussion and re-scoring of the top applications to ensure consistency of evaluation and eliminate ties. With respect to any criteria or requirements, all applicants are treated equally.

Maximum total score is 100

1. Likelihood of Acceptance at an Accredited Institution - Maximum 10 points.

Evaluation of the applicant's graduation records, GED certificate, transcripts, grade point average, work history related to the desired course or study or school, etc. – or evidence that the applicant has already been accepted at an accredited institution (in which case the maximum ten points will be awarded).

2. Community Service/Volunteerism, Extracurricular, Employment - Maximum 30 points.

Quality of the applicant's overall activities in the above areas: These areas are not evaluated separately because individual circumstances may or may not have permitted activity in one or another. For instance, outstanding volunteer work may outweigh a lack of employment history – or vice versa.

3. Essay – Maximum 30 points

Evaluation for clarity, and whether they adequately express the applicant's educational and career goals, reasons for wanting a scholarship, and any special circumstances. The essay should not exceed one page and should be legible and neat.

Letters must be attached to the application and should discuss the applicant's demonstrated qualities of character, initiative, honesty, achievement, and leadership. Letters must be written by qualified adults such as teachers, employers, supervisors, religious leaders, or others who can legitimately attest to the above qualities. Letters may not be from parties related to the applicant. Letters must be typed or written legibly, must be dated within the last six months, must be signed and must contain the address and contact telephone number of the signer. If from an organization, it must be on their Letterhead. Only two letters may be included in the application.
