Omega Hotel Group Announces “NOMINATE A HERO” Staycation

Nominate an essential worker to receive a staycation package

Madison— Tuesday, June 2, 2020—Omega Hotel Group wants you to nominate an essential worker hero in your community. “Today we are giving extra thanks to our health care workers, grocery workers, transportation workers, delivery drivers and the many other essential workers who have been caring for us during this time, said Bob Kumar, CEO at Omega Hotel Group.

Omega Hotel Group will donate up to six, two-night staycation packages, at their hotels. “To nominate an essential worker in your community, tell us why you’re nominating this hero in your community. We will send up to six nominees a staycation package to show our appreciation for their work during this unprecedented time,” said Lisa Horn, Director of Operations at Omega Hotel Group.

Provide us with your name, your email address, the essential worker name, the essential worker email address, the desired staycation destination, the essential worker’s occupation, and why you’re nominating this hero to receive the staycation package. All submissions should be sent to lhorn@ohghotel.com no later than June 30, 2020, with award announcements by July 3, 2020.
