Agenda

TENTATIVE

8:45 A.M. WELCOME

9:00 – 10:00 A.M. OPENING KEYNOTE: THE SILENT LANGUAGE OF LEADERS

Linda Clemons® - Body Language Expert; CEO, Sisterpreneur® Inc.

Approximately 80% of communication is expressed nonverbally. When you know how to unlock and tap the secrets of people's nonverbal cues, you'll always have the advantage in any situation. Imagine, armed with this powerful information you'll be able to sit in a business meeting and know what your colleagues and boss are really thinking and feeling. Imagine knowing the perfect time to close a deal or negotiation. You'll even learn how your body language influences your boss and how it may affect your impact on your promotion and career.

10:00 – 10:15 A.M. STRETCH BREAK

10:15 – 11:00 A.M. OPTIMIZING PERFORMANCE IN A CHALLENGING BANKING LANDSCAPE

Jennifer Docherty, Co-Founder and CEO, Bank on Women, Inc.

11:00 – 11:45 A.M. MONEY MATTERS FOR YOUTH

Gail Perry Mason, Author, Financial Coach, Talk Show Host

11:45 A.M. – 1:00 P.M. LUNCH AND AWARD RECOGNITION

1:00 – 2:00 P.M. FINDING CONFIDENCE IN YOUR CLOSET!

Jennie Hinze, Owner, Polka Dots Boutique

2:00 – 3:00 P.M. EXECUTIVE PANEL – ADVANCING YOUR CAREER

Joanne Rau, CEO/President, Chelsea State Bank; Kim Watters, VP, Human Resources, First National Bank of America; Patti Judson, Executive Vice President, COO, Bank of Ann Arbor

CLOSING REMARKS AND PRIZE DRAWINGS

MBA Women Shaping Tomorrow Award

The MBA Women Shaping Tomorrow Award is presented at the annual MBA Women in Banking Day. Celebrating a woman aged 40 or younger who is making a significant impact in our industry and community (i.e. participating in financial literacy), making her "one to watch." Candidates are interwoven and involved in their communities and should achieve success independently but thrive on sharing their vision with others and contributing to team success. The candidate is continually forward-thinking, welcomes change and opportunities to tackle new projects.

NOTE: Nominations are open until April 1

For more information, contact Stephanie Fisher at sfisher@michigan.bank.
Submit your nomination here.

“The Women in Banking Day was more than I expected and having never attended one before. I was truly inspired by the motivational speakers and atmosphere in the room. The venue was perfect for the event and the day was wonderful. I will speak the praises of the day going forward, encouraging those in our organization to attend if able. Thank you for putting this together with the MBA team!”

Trisha Dobias, Vice President, Human Resources, Citizens National Bank
