St. James is a tuition-free Episcopal school for 4th - 8th graders located in the Allegheny West neighborhood of North Philadelphia. Hear stories about campus life and how educators are teaching and nurturing the whole person and whole family.

St. James depends on the generous support of friends, especially at our Episcopal churches to remove obstacles and add resources so that each student can be a successful learner and have access to a quality education. You will have an opportunity to peruse woodshop items made by our graduates and also purchase St. James honey and Trappist preserves to support scholarships.

St. James community appreciates the support from the St. Martin's parish family. Join us in welcoming St. James.
