

Rector's Note

6.11.26

Sunday's Annual Meeting and Ministry Fair were filled with good spirit and fellowship. The state of our parish is good. We have many active ministries whose leaders are eager to share what they are doing and bring in more participants. It is a good way to mark the almost-end of our program year.

Many many thanks to our awesome staff -- Lorie, Tyrone, Luke, Noor, James, Connie, Kate, and Sean our tech wizard. Many thanks to Dani and Debra and Al and the Stewardship Committee for getting the fair together. Thanks to Garry and Lorraine and Tom and Lydia and the rest of vestry for your leadership, for processing, for all you did to facilitate the meeting and fair, and for bringing the hospitality. Thanks to all who presented and all who sat at tables. And thank you to everyone who came to the meeting, listened, and asked questions.

This week we have our All-Ages Pride Dance, and then no more Wednesday evening programming until the fall. Sunday evening we have Pride Evensong, the last evensong of the season.

But there's still much to look forward to later this month. Bluegrass Mass will happen June 21, along with a celebration of graduates, Father's Day coffee hour by the columbarium, and a baptism!

Anne Alexis Harra, sponsored by St Martin's, will be ordained a transitional deacon on Saturday June 27 at 10:00 am, at the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral. See more about that below, including an opportunity to contribute to a cash gift for her. The following day, she will preach and serve as deacon at our Sunday worship.

If you missed the Annual Meeting, the slides are linked here. There are also hard copies at the front desk and on the bulletin board as you enter the parish house.
