

Guatemala Raffle Continues Sunday

Good things come in twos, right? Our treasured tradition of raffling off a handmade Guatemalan tapestry is underway and this year, we have two pieces to raffle! (Sneak preview of one tapestry in the picture). For three weeks, starting Sunday, Oct 19th, we'll sell raffle tickets with the drawing of winners taking place on Saint Martin's Day. Tickets will be 1 ticket for $1 and 6 tickets for $5.

In more good news, our annual Guatemala Craft Sale will be held on two days this year, allowing you more time to purchase beautiful handmade crafts. On Rev. Dr. Mary's Installation Day, Saturday, November 8th, we'll be open after the service and then the fun continues Sunday, November 9th as a part of our St. Martin's Day activities. Proceeds support special projects such as the Recreation Equipment Project at San Juan Apostol in Chichicastenango and the response to the RSV outbreak in Xela, Quetzaltenango. For questions, reach out to Laura Sibson (484-431-7475) or Sandy Abrams (215-432-1065).
