

307 God of Grace and God of Glory

1 God of grace and God of glo - ry, on thy peo - ple
 2 Lo! the hosts of e - vil round us scorn thy Christ, as - 3 Cure thy chil - dren's war - ring mad - ness; bend our pride to 4 Save us from weak res - ig - na - tion to the e - vils pour thy power; crown thine an - cient chur - ch's sto - ry; bring its sail his ways! From the fears that long have bound us free our thy con - trol; shame our wan - ton, self - ish glad - ness, rich in we de - plore. Let the gift of thy sal - va - tion be our bud to glo - rious flower. Grant us wis - dom, grant us cour - age, hearts to faith and praise. Grant us wis - dom, grant us cour - age, things and poor in soul. Grant us wis - dom, grant us cour - age, glo - ry ev - er - more. Grant us wis - dom, grant us cour - age, for the fac - ing of this hour, for the fac - ing of this hour.

 for the liv - ing of these days, for the liv - ing of these days.
 lest we miss thy king - dom's goal, lest we miss thy king - dom's goal.
 serv - ing thee whom we a - dore, serv - ing thee whom we a - dore.

This stirring hymn used at the opening of Riverside Church in New York in 1930 was penned by its widely-known and influential pastor, and it has gained a firm place in English-language hymnals around the world. The Welsh tune name honors the Rhondda Valley in Glamorganshire.

For All the Saints

1 For all the saints who from their la - bors rest, who
 2 Thou wast their rock, their for - tress, and their might;
 3 O blest com - mu - nion, fel - low - ship di - vine!
 4 And when the strife is fierce, the war - fare long,
 5 From earth's wide bounds, from o - cean's far - thest coast, through thee by faith be - fore the world con - fessed, thy thou, Lord, their cap - tain in the well - fought fight;

 We fee - bly strug - gle; they in glo - ry shine; yet steals on the ear the dis - tant tri - umph song, and gates of pearl streams in the count - less host,

name, O Je - sus, be for - ev - er blest.
 thou, in the dark - ness drear, their one true light.
 all are one in thee, for all are thine.
 hearts are brave a - gain, and arms are strong.
 sing - ing to Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost,

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

The broad and sweeping tune with which this hymn is so closely identified was created to be sung during a reverent but dramatic procession at the beginning of an All Saints' Day service, an enacted representation of the enduring "fellowship divine" celebrated by this text.

For the Fruit of All Creation 36

1 For the fruit of all cre - a - tion, thanks be to God.
 2 In the just re - ward of la - bor, God's will be done.
 3 For the har - vests of the Spir - it, thanks be to God.

For the gifts to ev - ery na - tion, thanks be to God.
 In the help we give our neigh - bor, God's will be done.
 For the good we all in - her - it, thanks be to God.

For the plow - ing, sow - ing, reap - ing, si - lent growth while we are
 In our world - wide task of car - ing for the hun - gry and de -
 For the won - ders that as - tound us, for the truths that still con - sleep - ing, fu - ture needs in earth's safe - keep - ing, thanks be to God.

 spair - ing, in the har - vests we are shar - ing, God's will be done.
 found us, most of all that love has found us, thanks be to God.

Originally called "Harvest Hymn," this text is much more comprehensive than that title implies. It also deals with stewardship, thanksgiving, and God's endless gifts that continue to astound us. It is set to a familiar Welsh tune whose name means "throughout the night."
