

What's New at SobelCo

“

NJCPA Honors Those With
50-Plus Years of Membership

Marty Cutler and Morris Grossman were honored this month for serving as CPAs for 50 years in the state.

”

“

One June 5 Mike LaForge was invited to join two other panelists to present at the O. Berk Series for FDU Family Businesses on Succession and Estate Planning.

”

“

Michele Siekerka, CEO of NJBIA, shared survey data at the firm's quarterly Financial Executives' Roundtable on June 4, highlighting the brain drain, the talent pipeline and other challenges, while also addressing the state's last place score when compared to the overall regional business climate across six neighboring states.

”

“

Megan Kelly was selected as one of the NJCPA Ovation Award winners this year in the Emerging Leader category.

”

“

There was a full house at the Women in International Trade roundtable, with participants discussing many of the common challenges that impact women who conduct business internationally.

”

“

Member of the Firm, Scott Shapiro, used his international connections and skills when working in tandem with Alliot member, Boris Pahn, from the Berlin firm Audalis, when they met with a German national in need of EXPAT services. Once again we were able to demonstrate the power and resourcefulness of our being members of this global network!

”

“

Chris Martin and his wife Vanessa welcomed their new daughter Chloe on June 3, 2019 – weighing in at 8lbs 11oz and 21” long of cuteness.

”

“

SobelCo hosted the June program for the NJ chapter of the Financial Women's Association addressing the critical topic of recruiting women for corporate board positions. Liz Harper is an active member of this chapter and Sally Glick served as panel facilitator.

”