

What's New at SobelCo

Monica Kaden joined Sobel Valuations as a Director of Valuations, expanding our competencies in this practice area. Welcome!

The fourth SobelCo Employee Benefit Plan

Symposium was held on May 1st, a program that continues to evolve as a much sought after annual program providing essential information for Plan Administrators, TPAs, HR professionals, CFOs and owners. The 2019 panel shared ideas on how to create a workplace that consistently attracts and retains the best employees.

SobelCo was the Silver Sponsors of the Association for Corporate Growth NJ's conference for Corporate Growth and Corporate Awards (CGCA), an event that recognized the state's most innovative companies and at the same time presented Robert Garrett, CEO at Hackensack Meridian Health, with the Corporate Lifetime Achievement Award.

The SobelCo Executive Women's Leadership Breakfast will feature a fire side chat focused on, "The Imposter Syndrome" which will be presented before an audience of over 200 business women on May 21st. Attendees are asked to support Dress for Success in Northern NJ.

Nonprofit leaders and volunteers attended our quarterly webinar featuring Imagine's CEO, Mary Robinson, who shared her personal experiences on the critical topic of "Building High Performance Boards."

Scott Shapiro represented SobelCo at the 2019 Alliott international meeting focused on European, the Middle Eastern and African members (EMEA) "Together Toward Tomorrow" in Dubai.

To wrap up, on May 15th-17th, Forensic and Litigation practices joined SobelCo and Sobel Valuations at the Atlantic City Boardwalk Conference.

