

What's News in the SobelCo Nonprofit World

Luzmaria Concannon, a Principal at SobelCo, who joined the firm on January 1, 2019 as a result of a merger with Woodcliff Lake's firm Weber Shapiro, served as a member of Eva's Village committee for their annual Accountant/Attorney Dinner.

Sally Glick conducted a training program for the statewide Girls on the Run staff, providing a range of ideas on marketing, branding, board development and governance and fund raising.

Tyler Callahan, a member of our Nonprofit & Social Services Practice, has passed the CPA exam.

Ron Matan and Bridget Hartnett, Members of the Firm who direct the SobelCo nonprofit practice, facilitated the quarterly Nonprofit Leaders Roundtable-Somerset version, taking the "show on the road" by partnering again with Somerset County Business Partnership to bring this powerful networking event to mid-Jersey nonprofits.

 Somerset County Business Partnership
Your Chamber of Commerce and more

Colleen Logan has joined the committee for the State Theater's second annual Women's Tea Luncheon on March 12 starting with "bubbly drinks" at 3:00.

SobelCo proudly returned as a sponsor for the annual Center for Nonprofits Survey, Trends and Outlooks for 2019 – Click here for the survey results.

Vicki Bixel, President of Semple Bixel Associates, led the SobelCo quarterly webinar, discussing key fund raising trends anticipated in 2019. Vicki drew a record crowd of close to 100 participants – some joining remotely and others enjoying lunch and networking at the SobelCo office.

SOBELCO

SobelCoLLC.com