David was born and raised in Marietta, Ohio. He met and married Susan Hankins Mellor at Harding University in 1970. Upon graduation he worked as an aquatic coach and assistant director of the YMCA in Vincennes, Indiana. In 1974 he pursued greater education at Williamstown Bible College and began what would become a 45 year career as pulpit minister. He and Susan have two sons, Matthew and Nathan, and are the grandparents of 3 boys and 3 girls. They have served in Indiana, Mobile, Alabama and Chattanooga, Tennessee. Upon retirement, David began work with Health Talents International.
