SUNDAY EVENING NEWS

*The third Sunday of Advent is traditionally called Gaudete Sunday.
Gaudete is the Latin word meaning “rejoice.”*

*“Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I say, rejoice! The Lord is near.”
(Philippians 4:4,5)*

Peace & Greetings,

EVENING REFLECTION & PRAYER

Rejoice, the Lord is near! The Advent season continues, but today on the Third Sunday of Advent, the Church pauses for just a quick second to show hope and joy at the dawning of Jesus' birth just two weeks from now. The Church can't help but get excited for Christmas. We always rejoice in hope. As followers of Jesus we must always live our lives in joyful hope – a hope which does not disappoint, a hope that holds firm to the end. That is what this Advent season is all about: rejoicing in hope.

Let us pray,

O God, who see how your people faithfully await the feast of the Lord's Nativity, enable us, we pray, to attain the joys of so great a salvation and to celebrate them always with solemn worship and glad rejoicing. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Have a safe week.

Fr. Glen, Chaplain

SCHOOL CALENDAR

Week of December 14 – 18

All classes will meet Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday for 30-minute periods with 15-minute breaks and a 30-minute lunch.

Daily Bell Schedule

Homeroom/Period A	7:55-8:30
Period B	8:45-9:15
Period C	9:30-10:00
Period D	10:15-10:45
Period E	11:00-11:30

Lunch	12:15-12:45
Period G	12:45-1:15
Period H	1:30-2:00

Wednesday, December 16 will be utilized as a project work day or assessment makeup day. Teachers will be available to meet individually with students or small groups for extra help and support from 8:00 am – 2:00 pm and in addition will have open Zoom meetings (office hours) during specified times based by academic departments for either conferencing or to schedule another time on Wednesday to meet by Zoom.

It should be emphasized that this is NOT a day off from school. It's an opportunity for students to get work done, make-up homework or missed assessments, meet with teachers or schedule extra help, etc. Take advantage of this time ... plan ahead!

Office Hours per Academic Department

8:00-9:30	9:30-11:00	11:00-12:30	12:30-2:00
Unified Arts & Social Studies	Math & Science	World Language & Religion	English

Week of December 21 – 23

All classes will meet Monday and Tuesday for 30-minute periods with 15-minute breaks and a 30-minute lunch break. Wednesday, December 23, originally scheduled as a noon dismissal, will now be a non-instructional day and instead the beginning of the Christmas break.

If you have any technology issues while at home, please don't hesitate to email Mr. Cooper, jcooper@spchs.com.

PERFORMING ARTS

The Show Must Go On-Line This Fall

The St. Paul Catholic High School Performing Arts fall production, Monologue Mashup, premiered last Thursday evening for the drama student's families. A link to the performance for the entire St. Paul community to watch is now available, <https://youtu.be/K-OPSpKw5uM>

Monologue Mashup highlights dramatic classic shows like Our Town, St. Joan, The Crucible, The Diary of Anne Frank, Charlie Brown, Anne of Green Gables, Brighton Beach Memoirs and a host of others. We encourage everyone to enjoy this wonderful virtual stage production.

ATHLETICS

Student-Athlete Home Workout

All St. Paul student-athletes, especially those planning on participating in a winter sport, are encouraged to join the TeamBuildr app. Based on the winter sport you plan to play, there are codes & passwords listed on the St. Paul website www.spchs.com, under Athletics, At Home Workouts. If you would like to be part of the workouts as an out of season athlete use the Out of Season code. As part of logging into your workouts there will be a mental health assessment questionnaire meant to encourage you to think about things like proper sleep habits, nutrition, and productive mental health activities as helpful tools to assist you in navigating these unique times.

All winter sport athletes are encouraged to sign in and use this App. Winter sport coaches will be using TeamBuildr to check in and post information. If you have any questions or need assistance logging into or using the App please contact Coach Joe or Mr. Dennehy.
