Third Sunday after Pentecost

Prelude

I Must Tell Jesus/What A Friend We Have in Jesus, Edwards

Call to Worship (Responsive)

from Psalm 8

One: O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

All: You have set your glory above the heavens!

One: When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place... What are human beings that you are mindful of them?

All: Yet you have crowned us with glory and honor, placing the works of your hands under our care.

One: O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

All: Let us worship and praise God!

Hymn No. 612

We Praise You, O God

Welcome and Announcements

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Eternal God, our judge and redeemer, we confess that we have tried to hide from you, for we have done wrong. We have lived for ourselves, and apart from you. We have turned from our neighbors, and refused to bear the burdens of others. We have ignored the pain of the world, and passed by the hungry, the poor, and the oppressed. In your great mercy forgive our sins and free us from selfishness, that we may choose your will and obey your commandments; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith (Unison)

from the Theological Declaration of Barmen

Jesus Christ, as he is attested for us in Holy Scripture, is the one Word of God which we have to hear and which we have to trust and obey in life and in death. As Jesus Christ is God's assurance of the forgiveness of all our sins, so in the same way and with the same seriousness is he also God's mighty claim upon our whole life. Through him befalls us a joyful deliverance from the godless fetters of this world for a free, grateful service to his creatures. We reject the false doctrine, as though there were areas of our life in which we would not belong to Jesus Christ, but to other lords—areas in which we would not need justification and sanctification through him. Amen.
