

DIGITAL SATurday PREP CLASS Fall 2025

Veteran CCHS teachers Chris Yarussi and Jeremy Kuhn offer strategies and guided practice for the October 4 SAT to current CCHS students. The course, totaling 12 contact hours, takes place at CCHS over three Saturdays: September 6, September 13, and September 20. Cost: $220.

Participants attend sessions addressing Math* and English each of the three Saturdays over two blocks: the first block runs 8:30-10:30 and the second runs 10:40-12:40. Participants must bring their assigned CCHS laptop fully charged.

*For this session, it is recommended that participants have already completed Algebra II.

Early-bird rate thru Friday, August 29: $200

All payments must be received by Friday, September 5, 2025.

Venmo (@Chris-Yarussi) OR Personal Check to Chris Yarussi (delivered to the reception desk)

Click HERE to register!!

CREDENTIALS

Chris Yarussi is an experienced math instructor here at CCHS. Not only has she tutored and taught math at all levels, but she also has extensive experience in preparing students for standardized tests having worked at Huntington Learning Center for several years, where she successfully prepared many students for college admission through SAT and ACT test preparation and training.

Jeremy Kuhn, now in his 30th year in MACS education, has extensive experience with the Junior and Senior English curricula, covering everything from writing composition to grammar instruction to close reading to SAT preparation, working with students at every ability level, from remediation to Advanced Placement.